Dear Reena,

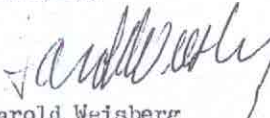

You have not heard from me because I had not learned from Carol Getacha what she has been working on. She developed some kind of computer trouble. If as she seems to hope it can be straightened out Monday, what will mean one situation. If she does not, it will mean a different situation. But at least I do know what she and Michelle do not have to work on, five chapters of an epilogue to a book manuscript already finished. If she cannot get to that promptly I'll be sending them to ~~you~~ you. If she can I've overloaded a friend who I think will be glad to have part of that done separately. If you hear from him, his name is Dr. Dennis MacDonald, at St. Anselm's College, home address 188 Milford St., Manchester, NH 03102. But I will pay you. Please keep a record of your hours, etc., that we will need.

I will appreciate knowing about how many hours you will be able to do ~~what~~ this work per week.

Also please keep a record of your costs for diskettes, paper, etc. and we will repay you.

I'll write you again, either ^way, as soon as I know.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
