

Dear Gerry,

11/18/92

Each semester I have two seminars with Jerry's Politics of assassinations course.

Last night's was on the King assassination. The previous one was on JFK's. In the class is a student who is connected with the TV work done at the Montgomery County Junior College closer to Washington. At the JFK one she asked if they could videotape this one. They did. It ran for more than two hours. I suppose that because they intend to produce something for that county's cable system they will evolve an hour-long cassette. They said they'd send one to Jerry and one to me. While I do not know that what they evolve or what we went into will interest your students, this is to let you know you are welcome to my cassette if you'd like it.

There was not much on the nuts and bolts of the assassination because Jerry covered that more than adequately in class and with documentation, a selection of documents he had the bookstore prepare and sell inexpensively.

But there were no frivolous, irresponsible or even ignorant questions, a tribute to both Jerry and his class.

We got it started with some of my recollections of the Rays and then it continued as I responded to their questions.

Best,
