

Kill Plots Not Hatched By Demos

(Continued From Page 1)

Roselli, claimed later to have been involved in several assassination plots against Cuban leader Fidel Castro. Roselli also has been subpoenaed to appear before the Senate panel.

Maheu, accompanied by counsel Morton Galane, had only a series of "no comments" to reporters' questions as he left the closed session.

Asked if Maheu stood by his previous testimony on the Mafia, Galane said his client's testimony "has always been consistent."

Maheu for four years ran Hughes' multi-million gambling and other operations in Nevada before the eccentric recluse fired him in 1973 after saying Maheu "robbed me blind."

Maheu's name has cropped up in almost every investigation or allegation in connection with former President Richard M. Nixon, the Watergate scandal, the CIA and its alleged ties with the Hughes empire, the Mafia and other matters.

The Senate committee, which is concentrating on alleged CIA assassination plots, appears most interested in reputed connections with the Mafia.