

WILLIAM BRADFORD HINE

HARTSELLE, ALABAMA

September 15, 1970

Dear Mr. Weisler:

My favorite and most treasured possession. Or it will be as good as it can be collected again. I have given it to Arthur Hanes Junior, and I am in the process of delivering it to him.

I no longer have it in my possession. When Arthur Hanes Junior was here he took away a bundle of it. He is to deliver it to you as soon as his book is completed. I expect it will be in your hands by the end of the year.

I also passed some on it to George McMillan, who is writing a book for Little Brown. I believe he expects to finish it by the end of the year and to return the material, not to me, but to you.

Finally, my lawyer in Nashville, John Becker, still has some of it because he has had it in some litigation. I expect he will return the material to you by the end of the year.

I hope that you will write to Mr. Hanes Junior, the President of the University of Alabama, to let you know that you are the only person and of the University of Alabama who has been contacted by me, by the Hanes family, in this regard.

Best wishes,

Bill Hane
