

Dear Iconoclast Doug Baker,

6/2/75

Thanks for the issues I'll go over when I can. The pictures in the April 18 issue, if you can spare a set, I'd like to have. Someone has borrowed mine and not returned them. There is another in this series you do not use, examination of a mark on the concrete around a manhole.

I ~~was~~^{want} them for file purposes only now. I never believed a slug is being picked up. I do believe a piece of brain is likely. The evidence I have precludes a shot from the in-ground sewer. So does the motion of JFK's body.

Feel free to use the enclosed 1/22/64 executive-session transcript any way you want or to give copies to anyone who may want one.

You order Whitewash 3-6, inc. There are no 5 and 6. What would have been 3 was Oswald in New Orleans, which I did not print. Thus Photographic Whitewash is 3. (Feel free to use any of the Dallas material in the appendix you'd like to use, preferably with reference to the book, which is almost out of print.) The sixth book is Frame-Up, which I also did not print. I include it as a substitute. If this does not suit you please return it insured for a refund. But because it does have JFK materials and is the only anti-official version of the King assassination and because it is the basis of the Ray defense, I do think you'll want it.

My cautions are seldom welcome but I've seen other Martin stories now and I've read Gols' (many thanks) and I wave red flags for you.

How much if any attention the Rockefeller Whitewashers will pay to Morris I don't know but I am certain that all these irresponsible and self-seeking insanities will enable them to cover up more. They restrict themselves to those exposures of the CIA that are already known, say that they date to a different era and different control of the CIA (now good boys, straight-lining), that the nation may, the world is much indebted to it for its good works, and that it is not neither guilty of the Original Sin, as its more radical critics allege, with greatest emphasis on those so-called tramp up pictures, probably include Wecht (and the misuse of some evidence that is probative but not as used). I expect heavy anti-Kennedy content and that now that Ford has special problems the whole thing will be worked around to his defense now and in the coming election. The crazies have made this a set-up. With the agencies already under attack (for dead leadership) and Ford No. 1 I'll not be surprised if there are allegations that the Warren Commission was not given all it should have been. If so, this will more certainly be the next stage of the covering up. This would spray him with deodorant and zirconium won't hurt him.

Do you know any printers down there who could be trusted to do a good job of breaking Photographic Whitewash down, reshooting it and printing it? If you do, I'd like to get some estimates. My supply is low. I raised the prices of the early books only after I was staggered by the printing cost alone of WW IV (we now owe only about $1,000 on that bill and have yet to recover the other expenses). If necessary to keep the cost/price down I'd consider thinner paper but not willingly. And a perfect rather than a sewn binding. It would require an efficient, modern plant to keep the cost down. All costs are high hereabouts. We are and have been broke. But because the books are selling despite an inability to advertise since the first of the year I've been putting all income from them in an escrow account in order to be able to pay an appreciable part of the cost of reprinting the first book to run out. Besides Oswald in New Orleans, of which I have only a few copies and have to charge what it costs me to replace them, $21.00. I hate that for a book from which I never got a penny and sold originally for 95¢!

Best wishes,

Iconoclast
