Chilean Rightist Says He Refused ITT Offer SANTIAGO, March 23 (AP) one of two non-Marxist can-

A prominent conservative didates running against Al-politician said today that he turned down an offer from an The offer was made while ex ecutive of International the Chilean people waited to Telephone and Telegraph see if Congress would con-Corp. to help anti - Marxist firm Allende's election be-Chileans block the election cause the Marxist candidate of Salvador Allende as presi- had failed to muster a majordent.

dent. Arturo Matte Larrain said in a telephone interview that Beberellez) offered as-"He (Berrellez) offered as-Robert Berrellez, an ITT pub-lic relations executive, made mentioned," Matte said. "We the offer two years ago while turned him down. the election of Allende, a [Matte's statement con-firmed testimony Berrellez gave to a Senate subcommittee of people at the time interestinvestigation conducted by ed in keeping out Allende. I Sen. Frank Church (D-Idaho) didn't want to have anything this week.]

this week.] Matte was campaign man-ager for ex-President Jorge told Berrellez; "You will be Alessandri at the time. Ales- advised." He said nothing

"He seemed to be very in-Marxist, hung in the balance. terested in preventing Allende [Matte's statement con- from taking office," the polisandri, a conservative, was more was said about the offer.

9