

Capt. J. W. Clark Elected President of Trade Mart 1972

Capt. J. W. Clark was elected today as the new president of International Trade Mart, succeeding the late Lloyd J. Club.

Basil J. Rusovich was elected first vice president; James J. ... second vice president, and Frank S. Norman, third vice president.

Other officers are Asahel W. Cooper, secretary; C. Alvin Bertel, treasurer, and Harvey C. Koch, assistant secretary. Harvey G. Koch, Dr. Alfred Ochsner Sr. and Harold W. Roberts were named to the executive committee.

Capt. Clark, who is president of Delta Steamship Lines, Inc., has been first vice-president of the Trade Mart since 1962. He was appointed in May 1962, by then Mayor Victor E. Schiro, to serve as expediter of the trade mart complex and to represent the city in development of the project.

He also serves as regional vice chairman of the Council of the Americas; a trustee of the Cordell Hull Foundation; a member of the board of the Information Council of the Americas, and is chairman of the Central Region Action Group of the National Maritime Council.

CAPT. J. W. CLARK