... .... .... responed to my inquiry having to go with a tape recorder and I cannot go out and buy one now. I will put it on a simpler basis and, unless I do hear from you, will assume this is the way it will be:

I will bring the attachments to my Norelco-tape recorder and a few cassettes I have and I will be able to borrow one of yours when I get there. I will need this all the time I am there.

This has certain advantages anyway. First, it will increase the space for files I can carry with me and second, it will postpone expidditures then cannot be afforded. And it reduces by one trip the opportunities for repetition of what happened to the one that was ruined.

You have not responded to my inquiry about Xeroxing (I know it is because you are busy). Therefore, if I do not hear from you on this, I will assume it will be done.

Please be sure to read the memo on Dr. Wecht's arrival and schedule so he can be met.

Please also, if Woo has not, tell Nouma that I can meet him at the airport in Baltimore, which is but an hour away, that he is more than welcome to stay here, where we can go over what I have and copy what he might want, and we are but an hour from court. I think he should catch the 12:10 p.m. plane Thursday (Delta 961, I think), which gets to Baltimore direct (non-stop) in two hours and serves a real nice lunch en route.
Also, if I have to go to New York, as is possible the day before, I will go by that airport, and my car will already be there. I have tried to reach Bud for confirmation of this arrangement but he is not home. Because I had mentioned it to him Thursday and he seemed to approve it, I assume that so far as he is concerned it is okay.
There is another advantage to this: I can send to you, via him, if you'd like, copies of those things I offered to let you, personally, read. Nouma will have gotten some knowledge of the unknown material on the autopsy that it should be an advantage for a lawyer on your staff to know in an emergency, can even read the unpublished book on the way back, certainly finishing it over the weekend. Perhaps it would be good if Woo read this paragraph.
