Dear Mr. Januzzi,

The list of our books is enclosed.

After my successful heart ~~attack~~ operation, when I found myself still weakening, I decided that I'd spend as much of the time that remains for me <sup>as possible</sup> to perfecting the record to the degree possible for me. It was then that I infrequently wrote about those who have loused the minds of the people up with fantasies presented as non-fiction. <sup>He</sup> Harris is a real nice guy. But he does not write about and <sup>he</sup> is ignorant about the assassination. He writes about the theories and can't get them straight. I do not really have time to give you the illustrations you ask for but just go down his lists of how people died and ask yourself if all those from natural causes could have been from anything <sup>else</sup> ~~else~~ plus what secrets they took or had to take to the grave with them. <sup>none!</sup> He does not teach the assassinations. He teaches the so-called theories which are not even that.

Rereading what I said about it I see no need to change a word.

Thanks and best wishes,

Jack Wesley

Dear Sir:

Mr. Weisberg:

I've read your book, "Case Open" (1994). It was an excellent answer to Mr. Posner's "joke book" Case Closed!! (It should have been called: "Closed Mind"! ) Although, I did find the reading of your book a little hard at times. I felt this could have been due to your illness & age maybe. Yet, it like your other work I read "Whitewash" (I) was very good. I consider you as a definite authority on the JFK assassination!

I would like to get some of your other works, such as the rest of the "Whitewash" series. Post Mortem, and even the book on Dr. King. Your books are hard to find as you are well-aware. So, I'm writing you, sir please let me know the asking price of your books. Thank you for this information!

I also have a question. It concern's "Jim Marrs' "Crossfire". I read that book, and I enjoyed it as a brief overview to the assassination. Mr. Marrs never made me feel he was trying to fool me or mislead me. I've heard that he teaches a course on the subject, so I felt he would tell me the truth. In your book, "Case Open" p. 84, fourth par. you refer to his book as "incredible trash"! You also include it with the thought of "incompetent and grossly inaccurate compendium of all the assassination  nuttiness." Could you in a nut shell please give me a few examples, if possible?

Mr. Marrs never gave me the impression that his book was the last or final word on the subject, so what you said just about floored me. Thank you for any help you can send to this query.

Sincerely,
Al Jannuzzi
