Dear, if I may, Brad,

I was worried that Gallen, who is angry with me for contrived reasons, would not agree. He got angrier when I asked him if he would keep his word and have the book out in September when there is no sign of it. He's been sitting on it more than a year. When you read it you'll perceive why I am apprehensive. In part, that is.

If you are going to the Washington meeting this weekend, which I cannot do, and have the time and want to come up, please do.

Dave Wrone, who will be there, can give you an independent appraisal of NEVER AGAIN! He is to be here before going there.

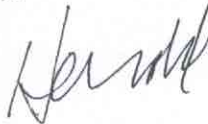

We are about 45 minutes from the beltway (I495) ~~the~~ ^{and} I 270, the road to here.

I trust that other than what you use of it you'll keep the book confidential until it is published. You plural, counsel and clients.

I do wish I had some alternative on publishing. and were confident it would be.

If you have any questions, please let me know. If you phone, I should be abed by 6 pm. ~~and really~~ ^{and really} try to be because I am up that early and can't help it.

Best wishes,

Harold Weisberg
