On the reverse side of this page, if you care to, would you tell me a little (or a LOT, for that matter!) about you?

A little about me: I am a woman of a certain age, not married, height: five foot - weight: not in proportion. I'm a non-sophisticate; am intelligent, have a good vocabulary but common sense is a bit lacking; poor typist; Macintosh owner; love to drive; must read; at present employed part-time.

I have remained interested in the events related to the loss of my President....I've read much in the last 28 years on the subject (and I sure wish I'd made and kept notes, now!). I have only a small JFK/related library (books/audios/videos).

I object to the Sealing of the Files and the on-going Cover-up(s). If Lee Oswald shot anyone, ever, it's most likely to have been Officer Tippit. I believe Lee Oswald was, indeed, a Patsy.
