Jaworski add

Between 1962 and 1964 the CIA-fronting International Student Conference got about $1,800,000 from the San Jacinto Fund and the CIA-front "Foundation for Youth and student affairs.

Domhoff 260

New Chief Of ABA Sets Priorities

NEW YORK, July 3 (UPI) Leon Jaworski, president-elect of the American Bar Association, said today he will give high priority to developing programs to teach legal processes to youngsters.

In a speech prepared for delivery to the National Conference of Bar Presidents at the ABA annual meeting, the Houston lawyer said:

"What once was taught at the knees of parents-the duty to respect authority and the undeviating obedience of laws -are no longer a part of the family ritual in many homes. Our democracy cannot forego What the these teachings. home once supplied and is no longer stressed, some other units must assume."

Jaworski said he would support the ABA's special committee on youth education. Its function, he said, is "to foster and further high-quality programs for the teaching of the legal processes in America's primary and secondary schools."

Jaworski said experts on crime and juvenile delin-quency have suggested such teaching in schools.

NYT 4/16/72 566

Bar Panel Seeks to Predict Misconduct

American Bar Association has May. proposed developing a uniform test for first-year law students ing the test would not be petition for a legal education."

To meet this problem, the report predictably give rise to misconduct" as lawyers.

fidential communications by a where he seeks to practice." student to a law school officer or teacher."

acter and Fitness of Candidates drawn up at the suggestion of you're dealing with as diverse a for Law School Admission the bar association's president, Constituency as the law school Prior to their Acceptance as Leon Jaworski, a Houston law-Students. The committee, a unit yer. Mr. Jaworski has exposition of Leon Feducation and the present of Leon Jaworski has exposition of Leon Feducation and the present of Leon Jaworski has exposition of Leon Feducation and the present of Leon Feducation and the present of Leon Feducation and the present of the present tion of Legal Education and ing number of applicants for Admission to the Bar, decided law school, estimated by the it would be impracticable to report at 100,000 in 1972.

screen applicants before admission and settled on the idea of mate had raised "increasing

A special committee of the final approval at a meeting in standpoint of proper moral research that all students would be studies to determine whether mends that all law schools be obliged to take such a test—required to "release to any admission authorities in any information "relevant to [a student's] admission to the part in the law school deans, informed to the part in the law school deans, informed to the part in the law school deans, informed to the part in the law school deans, informed to the proposal, made to the part in the law school deans, informed to the proposal, made to the part in the law school deans, informed to the proposal, made to the part in the law school deans, informed to the proposal, made to the part in the law school deans, informed to the proposal, made to the part in the law school deans, informed to the proposal, made to the part in the law school deans, informed to the part in the law school deans, informed to the part in the law school deans, informed to the part in the law school deans, informed to the part in the law school deans, informed to the part in the law school deans, informed to the part in the law school deans, informed to the part in the law school deans, informed to the part in the p to the bar, in the law school profession does require him to files or coming to its attention fulfill the moral character by any means other than con-standards of the jurisdiction

Suggested by Bar Head

According to Edward Kuhn, According to Edward Kuhn, chairman of the section, and the Yale Law School called the report was drawn up by the Special Committee on the Feasibility of Establishing Procedure for Reviewing the Character and Fitness of Candidates drawn up at the suggestion of the Yale Law School called the report's principal proposal "an absolutely terrible idea." He added, "Talking about devising a test for this purpose when acter and Fitness of Candidates drawn up at the suggestion of You're dealing with as diverse as testing freshmen law students. concern over the adequacy of The report, "approved in present procedures to be sure principle" by the section, will that those best qualified, both be submitted to the associa- from the standpoint of intellect tion's board of governors for and motivation and from the character attributes, are the The law schools administer- ones who succeed in this com-critical comments.

"My reaction to this report is so extraordinary that I want to check it to see if it is genuine," said Michael Sovern, dean of the Columbia Law School.

Abraham Goldstein, dean of