Dear Mr. Weisberg:

I am very sorry, indeed, that I have been so long in answering your letter and sending you my book in exchange of yours which I read with very great interest. It is certainly one of the most penetrating analyses of the assassination I have ever read.

The book goes out to you today, under separate cover. Please let me know in due course whether you have received it.

I read somewhere that you had written a second volume on the subject and had again published it yourself. Could you let me have a copy of that one, too?

I have been corresponding with Penn Jones Jr. for some time and I am glad to hear that you are in touch with him, too. He has sent me a copy of his book and I have sent him mine.

Hoping to hear from you again, I remain, with kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

PS. If you send the second volume, please address it as follows:

Joachim Joesten, c/o Lersch, Munich 23, Dreschstr. 5, Germany. - Thanks.
