

Dear Harold,
Sorry for the long silences but I've been tied up.

In the waters of some wise man, don't let the bastards get you down. The media reception of Frank's book was sadly quite predictable. You have revealed an historical truth that America cannot face. Dick Gregory should have written that you were "the true patriot of our time although dying out in a wilderness of rejection".

The Nayer book was killed. Braden does seem worthy of some investigation. Mafia figures could have been used on the Operational issues with false sponsors, a whole Cuban exile may have played, also.

Andrew St. George
at work on a book
attacking the media
and hype for its role in the N.G. affair.

What's new?

Take care of yourself
and get plenty of rest.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, consisting of several loops and a long tail stroke.