Dear Claude,

Sorry I had to switch tickets.

After the close of business Friday I was asked to attend a meeting in Jacksonville instead of Miami.

I still expect to make a trip to Miami on the same business but had best get a new ticket then so I return the one you were kind enough to send herewith.

My expenses are being paid by a foundation whose people are consulting me. I don't know whether they will want to pay you directly or pay me and then I pay ~~me~~ you.

But either way it won't be long.

Actually, they still invoted me to go to Miami for a few days of rest.

Boy can I use them!

This is my birthday (61) and I started it a little after 3:30 a.m.!

But ~~all~~ works until the 17th and requires daily transportation. Cabs into and from tje city are costly. The ten minute trip is about $5.00.

So, I had to decline.

But when I go to Miami, if I have the same invitation I'll accept it and get some sun and some sleep. Having no work with me I'll be able to sleep.

Again my thanks.

⁴ope you can get up here some nice weekend. It is getting beautiful.

Sincerely,
