	Justice Dept. Planning Limited Investigation Into Kennedy Slaying WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 (AP) — The Justice Department, more than a year after being urged by a House committee to open its own investigation into the as- sassination of President Kennedy, has de- cided that it will conduct a limited in- guity into the matter. Justice Department officials say the in- quity will focus primarily on controver- sial acoustical evidence that a second person fired at Kennedy in Dallas's Dea- ley Plaza on Nov. 22, 1963. The department was urged in Decem- mittee to follow up on the panel's findings of possible conspiracies in the slavings of both Kennedy and the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., the civil rights leader. I The committee concluded after a two- year investigation that Kennedy's death probably resulted from a conspiracy, possibly by organized crime figures, and that Dr. King's murder in Memphis on April 4, 1968, might have been a result of a conspiracy. The decision to conduct the Justice De- partment inquiry was announced in a let- ter written by Robert L. Keuch, special Justice Dept. Planning person fired at Kennedy in Dallas's Deation integration counsel to Attorney General Benjamin R. person fired at shot from a grassy knoll along the Presidential motorcade route. Limited Investigation Inte department was urged in Deceminities to follow up on the partment was urged in Deceminities to follow up on the partment was urged in Deceminities to follow up on the partment's linding of possible complicates in the slavings of possible complicates in the slavings of the House assastinations complicates in the slavings of the House assastination would be asset to the assastination would be asset of the assastination would be asset to the partment would in the Drs. King's murder in Memphis on the fugures, and the President Review of the department would in the Drs. King's murder in Memphis on the fugures, and the Drs. King's murder in Memphis of the House committee's acoust a would be asset to the partment in out to any matter the department would be asset of the partment in out the Drs. King's murder in Memphis on the fugures and the Next on the asset of the laws committee asset in the signing so the House committee's acoust of a would be asset of the laws committee would be asset of the laws committee acoust as area of the asset of the laws committee acoust as the windows of the Abril 4, 1868, might have been a result of a time of the laws exit as the windows of the assestion. The constitue and the windows of the assest of the assestion would be asset of the supposed perch of Lee Harvey in the windows of the supposed perch of Lee Harvey is that of the supposed perch of Lee Alarvey is the window of the assest of the seasest of the second would be asset of the supposed perch of Lee Harvey is the window of the seasestin Mr. H
cials were seeking to obtain the film. Mr. Stokes said he was gratified by the department's decision. He said Mr. Keuch had also assured him that depart- ment officials would undertake an inves- tigation into Dr. ¹ King's murder. Mr. Havel said, however, that no inquiry into the matter was planned until lawyers fin- ished a review of the House committee's reports.	sel to Attorney General Benjamin R. etti. . Keuch told Representative Louis s. Democrat of Ohio, who is chair of the House assassinations panel, be had asked the Federal Bureau of stigation to conduct a "limited inves- ion into several aspects of the assas- ion." Independent Review said the National Science Founda- ependent scientific review" of the ngs of the House committee's acous experts. Those experts concluded a Dallas police tape made during the nedy siaying showed that a second of weald, the assassin. Mr. Havel said offi-

.÷