Dear Mr. Kogut:

Your letter with the clippings arrived.

My husband is away from home at the preseny time, but I am sure he will find the content of the clippings very interesting. He will return them to you after he has had a chance to see them.

The next book (the fifth) is written but we cannot publish it at this time, although we are hopeful we can arrange to do so without too much delay.

Thank you for writing.

Sincerely,

Dear Sir:

Inclosed find 3
clippings on the Kennedy murder.
I think you should notify Garrison
about the important information they contain. But please return them to me
because I want to keep them until the case is completely
solved.

I have read all ^{2.}
your books and am
eagerly awaiting your next one.

Keep up your good
work until we discover
all the evil Fascist
rats behind the Kennedy murder.

Sincerely,
Harry Kogut,
