Dear Mrs. Kaufman,

Thank you very much for your letter of the 21st. All the major distributors in the New York area, who also serve a large part of the rest of the country, handle and supply WHITEWASH, so your bookstores should have neither problems nor troubles getting it. It is beginning to do quite ~~well~~ well.

It is an offset reproduction, with a soft cover, of necessity, but is otherwise a hardback-type, with a stitched binding that allows it to open flat and a much better paper than almost any commercial book has. The price is $4.95, and we mail it also. The may seem like a high price for a paperback, even one of more than 110,000 words, but it is a price that cannot make the book profitable to us as our costs have been of that magnitude.

We will, of course, appreciate anything you can do to encourage the sale of the book and are confident that when you have read it you will find such effort in accord with your beliefs.

Generally, we are able to send the book by return mail. A rather large number of New York book stores now sell WHITEWASH.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
