Dear Ms. ^KRoone,

To the best of my knowledge the OSS records were inherited by the CIA and insofar as they can be obtained under the FOIA, you should be able to get copies of those for which no FOIA exemption is claimed.

- know that I got some relating to ^{me} from the Coordinator of Information's files, which OSS inherited, from the CIA.

I also got some of my OS's personal records from it.

Some of the records relating to military personnel in particular should be available from that vast St. Louis USA deposit.

Which did have a serious fire several years ago.

Best wishes,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Sir:

August 16, 1992 - Sunday Sun carried an article "Author of 6 books on Kennedy slaying leaving his life's work to Hood College - Deb Riechmann.

The article says you were in the Office of Strategic Services. And it says you try to answer questions posed to you.

I need to know the present location of the Records of the Office of Strategic Services - the wartime operations; and the Records prior to WWII including the period from WWI to the official disclosure of the creation of the Agency during WWII.
Can you give me any information on either of the Time frame Records present location ?

I am aware that the records were sent to the U.S. Army, then to the Department of State, then allegedly to the CIA from there it is any body's guess.

I have, also, done some investigation along the JFK murder ring; however, my information clearly shows the Russian double agents ring from as early as the beginnings of 1920 and the COMPLETE infiltration of the RUSSIAN AGENCY into the U.S. Government; as well as the matter involving the Lindberg kidnapping where the Russian Agency was directly identified.

Thanks for your information,

Very truly yours,

Alice Koone
