Dear J. Edgar:

I have been out of the city or you would have heard from me sooner.

I just want to say, after reading the Warren Report, I have got more confidence in you and the F.B.I. than ever. Don't let it worry you. Of course; you are right--we don't want a police state and can't have it.

J. Edgar, you have been one of the greatest Americans I have ever known and that has covered a period of many decades. I just want to restate my complete, full confidence in you. What great service you have given our American people!

Sincerely,

Your friend,

Roy A. Roberts
