Dear Jerry,

Feeling a bit edgy, while Ed is typing the Leonard letter I started to catch up on some filing. I find that which may be of some slight interest to you in your Kaplan intests and what may be irrelevant.

Professor of Law at Stanford as of the time he wrote an article that appeared in the Nation of 11/2/64 might perhaps indicate influence in getting Kaplan there?

His article is a paen of praise for the Report, saying, in effect, everything that is to be known is, as of that date. He could not by then have seen any of the alleged supporting evidence if he could, in fact, have even read the report with care.

Therefore, he endorses both the conclusions and the investugation.

I found reference to this in the Jornal of the Academy of Forensic Sciences 7/66 issue, which contains papers presented at their Chicago meeting that Feb. The comment on his remarks is critical, as are just about all the papers ave one by the federal "questioned Documents" expert, not so identified.
