Mr. Harold Weisberg 7627 Old Receiver Road Frederick, Maryland 21702

Dear Harold:

I received a phone call this evening from a man who said he was calling from West Virginia. Apparently he got my name from the review that I did of Case Closed for The Fourth Decade. Why he is calling me this long after it was published, I do not know. Perhaps you can shed some light on it or make some sense of it. Maybe he is just a nut; maybe he is trying to find out what I might know; maybe he is what he says he is, but is misguided.

He says his name is the sounds like it might be contrived. He talked so fast, it was hard to get everything down. He claims he was called by Posner before he wrote his (Posner's) book and he gave his materials that he planned for a book to Posner. He claims that Posner took what he wrote and twisted it to mean the opposite of what he intended. He says Posner called him for weeks at a time.

Smith says that he was in the military when Kennedy was President and that he wrote a warning to Kennedy weeks before he went to Dallas not to go to Dallas. Smith also says he worked for the Navy and that KGB attempted to take his life when he was in Europe. He says he briefed Oswald, either before or after he went to the Soviet Union, I wasn't taking notes when he brought that up. He says that his research indicates that Morrow's work in First Hand Knowledge is basically correct, something I know you don't put much stock in (I believe to put it mildly). He talked about a Jackie Kennedy look alike who was murdered, and also something about Mary Meyer (Cord Meyer's wife, allegedly JFK's lover), who was murdered in D. C., but that Mary Meyer also had a friend who was murdered. He made mention of briefing George Bush in Germany, but I am not sure of when he claims that to have happened. He also said he surveilled Dealey Plaza before Kennedy's visit by helicopter. "Smith" claims that he was under court order not to print anything about his experiences, but with the release of the Archival materials, he was free to do so. He was looking for a writer and a publisher. He had not read Case Open, but said he was looking for a copy. He may contact you; I gave him your address, but just to perhaps purchase a copy of Case Open. He said his address was: Kenneth Smith P. O. Box 1195, Credo, West Virginia 25507, phone 1-304-453-5463. Tam inclined to think he was he a putt what are your facilities? may be a nut; what are your feelings?

Hope you are feeling well and getting around. Enclosed are a couple more stamps for your many correspondences. Best wishes as always,

Dave Yeck.
