Mr. Martin
Senator Edward Kennedy
Senate Office Bldg.
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Martin,

these letters are as unwelcome to me as they are to you. i cannot control what others think or do, but i can meet my obligations as i see them and i can try and inform those who i think ^{should} know of what i think they should know, and i can and i do make a record, which i think serves the national interest.

i therefore write to tell you that i have every reason to expect a further trading on the kennedy name in a way that at least ultimately will be hurtful, that is against the national interest, and that i think is scandalous.

this is really additional reason to expect that of which i have long known. it is in the form of what was necessary to make it seem nice and clean and proper. i now have this in my possession in the form of documents. ~~ix~~ i believe i know everything except the date on which it will be pulled off.

with no less regrets,

harold weisberg
