

Kennedys outraged! New book accuses Jackie of plotting to kill JFK

Kennedy family members are shocked and outraged by a new book that claims Jackie O and her lover Aristotle Onassis arranged JFK's assassination!

"The book is a blatant lie," Jackie's half brother James L. Auchincloss declared in an exclusive ENQUIRER interview.

"This is the most outrageous claim made yet!"

The book titled "Oh, No... Jackie-O!" was written by an author who calls herself January Jones — she wants her real name to remain a secret — and is published by P.J. Publishing.

It's being sold for $19.20 by the largest on-line Internet bookseller, Amazon.com.

Amazon.com describes the book as a nonfiction work about the Kennedy assassination that "refutes popular theories on the assassination and makes a convincing case for whom the real perpetrators might have been. It is both shocking and, at the same time, believable."

In the book, Jones claims that a month before JFK was gunned down in Dallas in 1963, Jackie was a guest on Onassis's yacht and the two plotted to kill the President.

"Jackie O wanted money — lots of it — and Aristotle wanted the world's most talked about woman of the time," Jones told The ENQUIRER.

"They made a deal and John Kennedy had to go. Ari Onassis hired the gunmen to murder JFK in Dallas."

A Kennedy family insider told The ENQUIRER: "The Kennedys are shocked to the core over the Jones is totally ridiculous. There is absolutely no evidence to support this wild theory."

Yet Jones isn't ruffled by her critics. "My book is based on 30 years of research and reading about Jackie O and the Kennedys," she said.

Jones writes: "Jacqueline Kennedy and Aristotle Onassis fell in love on his yacht, the Christina, during their famous cruise in the fall of 1963. They agreed that in order to marry, Jackie must get out of her sham of a marriage. Unfortunately divorce was not an option.

"Ari, in the throes of his desire to possess her, convinced her that by eliminating Jack Kennedy in such a way as to protect their involvement, their problems would be eliminated."

"Onassis would procure the world's best sharpshooters and hire them to commit the assassination. Even the assassins would never know who actually ordered this hit."

Jones said, "The widowed Jackie spent Christmas 1964 with Onassis in an apartment in Paris, spending quiet nights in front of the fire! Their secret courtship went on for years until Oct. 17, 1968, when wedding plans were publicly nounced."

The insider added: "This book is not only outrageous, it's absurd. The Kennedy family is understandably outraged that this vicious tripe is being hawked on Internet. The family is really by it."

"The Kennedys are used to all sorts of shocking accusations about their family, but this one is so malicious and so hurtful — it goes way over the line!"

Prominent author Ronald Kessler, who wrote "The Sins of the Fathers," a book about Joe Kennedy and his family, told The ENQUIRER: "This book by January
