Jackie and Ari: Pre-Nuptial Contrac

By Jack Anderson and Les Whitten

superb. The nation will not soon forget that time of shock and pires. grief after Dallas in 1963 when come part of our national herit-

And there were other motions and joy in life and the bat- pendent, competent witnesses. tle-that once was called Came-legend and to the millions who inheritance of any significance. Aristotle Onassis-the aging, al- magnate's daughter, Christina. ien gnome of colossal wealth clouded the vision of Camelot.

never doubted that the time counted vorable, would be told.

To the historical interest is now joined a current public in-For a moment in history, Jac- terest in discovering the dispoqueline Kennedy Onassis was sition and control of one of the world's greatest financial em-

We have interviewed dozens she rose above the shattering of intimates of both Jacqueline personal ordeal to give those and Aristotle Onassis. We have bitter hours a presence of dig-reviewed some of Jackie's pernity and nobility which has be-sonal letters and have examined other private documents. Witnesses have given us detailed accounts of Ari's most ments, too, when this most beau- private conversations. Every tiful of First Ladies helped to fact to be cited here, and in colweave the spell-that mixture of umns to come, has been corrobhigh purpose, vaulting aspira-orated by two or more inde-

We can reveal that Jacqueline Onassis will not control any part For the Kennedy legions who of the Onassis empire, nor is it took to her as the keeper of the planned that she will receive an age 21 when the payments will management for funds. saw her as a latter-day Ma- The keys to that kingdom will be donna, her sudden marriage to held by the departed shipping

Jackie has not been left destiand sinister reputation-tute, however. For she carefully provided for herself in advance Up to now, out of respect for of her remarriage. Sources what once was, we have been close to the couple say she content to let the matter rest wheedled a pre-nuptial committhere in a merciful fog. But we ment from Ari. As he later reintimates. to she would come when the full story, pleaded that the marriage scaled down her allowance, ac-even if it turned out to be unfa- would cost her the support of cording to our sources, to about the Kennedys and that she sim- $20,000 a month. ply had to have some money of her own.

> Thus, the marriage was preceded by a premarital contract her money problems. Upon the as solemn and encompassing as recommendation of a Kennedy the leasing of one of Ari's prize family financial adviser, but supertankers.

The centerpiece of the pre-But sources close to the Onassis free bonds. financial operations say Jackie received a flat $3 million in taxfree bonds.

Additionally, some sources said, each of Jacqueline's children would receive the interest on a $1 million trust fund until cease and the principal will revert to the Onassis estate.

also received monthly allowance, which been received to beg for more started out at $30,000 tax-free, money from Ari's financial men; disbursed by Onassis' New York Creon Broun. Sources who office. Later, our sources say heard her appeals describe Onassis became angry over them as harrowing. "Things Jackie's prodigal spending and simply can't go on this way at moved her account to his Monte the house any longer," she Carlo office where he could would say in protest against watch it more closely. He also Ari's alleged parsimony.

With the disarming coquetry for which she is famous, Jackie Onassis often complained about against Ari's advice, she invested in the stock market-and marital contract was a huge fi-lost a reported $300,000. She nancial settlement on Jackie pleaded with Ari, says our One source who saw a draft of sources, to make up the loss the contract suggested that the which he refused to do, saying amount was around $20 million, she should have left it in the tax:

> She also found her allowance inadequate. Often before the month was up she would send aide Nancy Tuckerman, who was on the payroll of Onassis* Olympic Airlines for about $20,2 000 a year, to Ari's New York

Sometimes Miss Tuckerman would show up no more than 15 a days after the allowance had

°1975, United Feature Syndicate