Dear Mr. Weisberg:

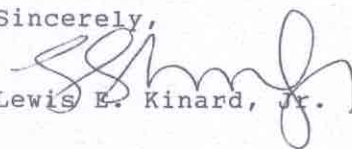

I recently became aware that you were among the research consultants listed for a video recording I am interested in obtaining entitled REASONABLE DOUBT.

The listing I have obtained from the University of Wisconsin at Stevens Point reflects the video is one of study of the "magic" bullet. I am interested to know what kind of information was sought from you, whether that information was consistent with all of your published opinions or not.

I can imagine what information you provided, based on the four books I have bought from you. I hold alot of the same opinions, considering the information I have been able to compile, only around 18,000 pages of documents.

I would appreciate a bit of information regarding the above and I certainly hope your health has improved. I shall pray for you and your family.

Sincerely,

Lewis E. Kinard, Jr.
