

For Ch 1
add on chicken a la king

(The Commercial Appeal liked this inaccurate and propagandistic crack seeking to make a coward of King so much that it had a separate little item on it March 31. Headed "Chicken a la King" it reads: Front Street, the street that cotton made famous, was the escape route by which Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., fled from the rioting and looting in the downtown area Thursday. His efforts to climb about a meat truck were rebuffed, but the morotist next in line picked him up."

The Memphis FBI liked the item so much it sent the original to Headquarters, where it is filed. (~~###~~ #157- 1092-192.)

That this is an unfair and inaccurate account of what happened is established by Headquarters File 157-1092- 157-9146-47 and Memphis Files 157-1092-171 and 183.
