SEC Got ITT Files Less Beard Memo

By Jack Anderson

There was a startling sequel to our publication last February of the Dita Beard memo which linked the settlement of ITT's antitrust cases with an offer to help subsidize the Republican National Convention.

The memo was read with considerable astonishment inside the Securities and Exchange Commission. The SEC had subpoenaed all documents relating to ITT's acquisition of Hartford Fire Insurance, the grand prize in the antitrust Files Moved settlement. Yet nowhere in 34 cartons of files, which ITT had merce Chairman Harley Stag-Beard memo.

glomerate, not wishing to an- the SEC is an arm of Congress. tagonize the mighty SEC, hasttails about White House intervention to get a favorable antitrust settlement for ITT.

The names of White House Staggers. Charles Colson and aides documents, our sources say. There's reason, indeed, to believe the papers may include cited former Federal Commukeep them from falling into for holding back documents.

safe." Hunt is secretary to the boxes of ITT papers, including be fully briefed on the ques-SEC

When we asked SEC Chairthis, he would say only: "I am kept at the SEC. not going to comment on the investigation." Hunt told us trol." We asked whether the under someone else's control. documents," he said cryptically.

Meanwhile, House Comturned over to the SEC, could gers D-W.Va.) formally reinvestigators find the Dita quested the ITT documents from the SEC. This put Casey Angrily, they accused ITT of on the spot, since he was apholding out on them. The con- pointed by the President but

He put his loyalty to the ily produced several addi- President first and refused to tional confidential memos and deliver the documents to Conletters. Sources who have had gress. This angered Staggers access to these documents say who summoned Casey up to they contain incriminating de- Capitol Hill. The SEC chairman, accompanied by Commissioner A. Sydney Herlong Jr., spent an hour closeted with memo, ITT directs its sales-

Sternly, Staggers reminded Peter Flanigan appear in the them that the SEC operates other investigation. under the jurisdiction of Congress and that he had once ITT shredded last spring to man Rosel Hyde for contempt

The same sources tell us, and Herlong had given him rating them into the compa-however, that the incriminat- the impression they would ny's training manual for pros- gional vice president were di-the hot documents in Hunt's tions and answers before they safe, to the Justice Depart- took the NASD examinations. man William J. Casey about ment. Not even copies were he was shipping them over."

ing the fox the keys to the moted to licensed salesmen. chicken coop. For top officials key where no one can see them."

ITT Document

shredders. In this amazing tions about the matter.

and fined Hamilton Manage- "knowledge of this activity duplicates of documents which nications Commission Chair-ment Corp., an ITT mutual had carefully been withheld fund subsidiary with $700 mil- from all other persons assolion in assets, for cribbing offi-ciated with the corporation." Staggers later told us Casey cial examinations and incorpo-

ately locked up in Ron Hunt's stead, they packed off the 34 ITT-Hamilton's trainees would

Involved in the scandal were Thomas Pulliam, an as-Casey notified Staggers that sistant vice president and the Justice Department had sales training director; also that "no documents have been requested the documents. But Floyd Marcoe, a regional vice kept in a safe under my con- Staggers disputed this. "We president. But by the time checked this out with the Jus- NASD had learned about the documents had been locked up tice Department," he told us. crib sheets and had notified "They said they had not asked ITT of an investigation, Pul-"I am unaware of any such for the ITT documents but liam and Marcoe had left the that Casey had informed them company. Three other branch managers were suspended This was equivalent to giv- and, subsequently, were de-

> Before the scandal broke in of the Justice Department are the newspapers, ITT sent out deeply implicated in the ITT a confidential memo instructscandal. Staggers has now ing its salesmen what to tell asked Justice for access to the customers. The memo was ITT documents, but he told us signed by ITT-Hamilton Presiruefully: "I understand the 34 dent Frank Peirson; its auboxes are kept under lock and thenticity has been acknowledged by ITT.

> "It is likely," said the memo, "that mention of the vi-However, at least one docu- olations will be made in your ment found its way to us be- local papers and that certain fore it could reach the ITT of your clients may have ques-

> "Advise them . . . that only men to mislead customers a very small number of Hamilabout the seriousness of an-ton's field personnel had been engaged in improper activity." The National Association of Peirson also ordered his sales-Securities Dealers suspended men to tell the public that

This wasn't true, since an asing documents "were immedi- comply with his request. In pective salesmen. This meant rectly involved in the scheme.