2 Pa. Employees Also Get House Pay

By Jack Anderson

Rep. Thomas E. Morgan (Deign Relations chairman and a collects $9,500 a year from Humphrey after he lost to ter's own voice. All this selfpower in the backrooms of Pennsylvania as a field audi-Richard Nixon in 1968. Washington, has two Pennsyl- tor and $2,860 from the House vania state employees on his of Representatives. House payroll to do political chores for him.

foreign aid to nations abroad tele and patients and people permitted to visit him. Morgan directs other U.S. wanting help when he gets in Treasury checks to two polition the week-end." cal errand boys at home, John full-time salaries from the men. state of Pennsylvania.

In other words, the taxpayers are helping to pay Morgan's campaign costs while his opponents must do without federal aid.

The 50-year-old Jake Morgressman, draws $6,717 from the U.S. Treasury and another $9,454 from Pennsylvania.

He is listed as a "clerk" for Prisoner of Saigon the House of Representatives From time to time, we have tor for the Pennsylvania Gen-Truong Dinh Dzu, who was Navy his "clerical" duties.

sitting around on your ---!" the presidential election.

Then he slammed down the telephone.

(Jake) Morgan and Thomas H. to my associate, Les Whitten, amination and notified the Boyd. Both men also draw about his two political hench- U.S. mission that Dzu would

"They're part of the political organization," Morgan explained. "Certainly they take formed inquirers "that Mr. they have their field workcial Security, black lung, and 1, 1972," gan, no relation to the con- so on. I couldn't see how there would be any conflicts of interest."

Alarmed, President Thieu sea beyond sight of his pessent Dzu to jail on trumped-up ters, the admiral dispatched Morgan's other political charges. This would be equiva- cassette tapes bearing pa-Pa.), the esteemed House For- aide, 66-year-old Thomas Boyd, lent to imprisoning Hubert triotic messages in the mas-

Last year, we reported that nanced by the taxpayers. Dzu had been refused medical KLEINDIENST'S "Sometimes," he acknowl-treatment in prison for a FIRM-Four years ago, the edged, "we have his office all heart ailment. The U.S. mis- Phoenix law firm of Shimmel, Even as he skillfully steers filled up with political clien- sion made inquiries and was Hill, Kleindienst and Bishop

> Morgan also talked amiably tal for a complete medical exbe released a year early.

This report was passed on to ing practice in the capital. the White House which inpart in political activities, but Dzu recently received a oneyear reduction in sentence Veterans Administration, So- and is to be released on May

> May 1 has now come and gone. But Truong Dinh Dzu is still in prison.

Washington Whirl

WHO'S and as a construction inspect reported on the fate of Isaac Kidd, the gung-ho new seems to side with the house-Authority. We sentenced to five years of has distributed among his sub-pronouncements of Nassikas reached him at a construction hard labor in South Vietnam ordinates 2,500 picture cubes and his industry cronies. site and questioned him about after giving President Thieu a with his picture on three "There yet is no positive indi-his "clerical" duties. scare in the 1967 elections. sides. For awhile, he also plas-"I'm tired of all you g-d- Dzu called for establishing a tered the walls with enormous partment office, "that such newspapers bothering peo- coalition government and ne- red posters featuring his he- price increases have resulted ple!" he roared. "Why don't gotiating an end to the war. roic countenance and the leg- in additional exploration and you get a real job instead of He came in a strong second in end: "What have you done for production." the fleet today?" For sailors at promotion, of course, was fi-

LAW had no Washington office. But As a result, the Saigon gov- that was before Richard Kleinernment sent Dzu to a hospi- dienst left the firm to become deputy Attorney General. Suddenly, the firm was in great demand in Washington. It now has a full-time staff of five attorneys to handle its flourish-

GAS INCREASES—We have written how Federal Power Commission Chairman John Nassikas, the natural gas lobby's best friend in Washington, has pushed through gas rate increases on grounds that this will encourage exploration for more gas. Yet, the Interior Department's Bureau of Land Management, in a KIDDING-Adm. draft environmental statement, material commander, wives of America against the

@ 1972, United Feature Syndicate