Now in possession of the Pallas Office is Exhibit D-102 which is Century Arms, Inc., th Take Street, St. Albans, I Vermont, Invoice No. 8934, dated Jun 29, 1962, which reflects shipment on July 5, 1902, of 700 0.1 callbre Italian Carbines, Catalog No. 33-35/HM, to Aldens, 50(a) West Roosevelt Road, Department G33, Chicago, Illinois, 100 Aldens Order No. 82503. Also, in possession of the Dallas Office is Exhibit D-103 which reflects the serial numbers of 700 (6.5 callbre Italian Carbines which were received by Century Arms, Inc., from Empire Sporting Goods, Montreal, Quebec, Canada. One of such serial numbers is shown as "2766".

Previous investigation has established that the assassination weapon bore Serial No. C2766 and was purchased in Earth, 1963, by LEE HARVEY OSWALD from Klein's Sporting Goods company, Chicago, Illinois, who had obtained such Weapon from Crescent Firearms, Inc., 2 West 37th Street, New York City. Additional detailed tracing of the source of the weapon by Crescent Firearms, Inc. is being requested by separate communication.

No. 2706 received by Aldens from Century Arms, Inc. in July, 1962 is a different weapon than the assassination weapon. However, this must be resolved completely.
