

The Klan rides again

One Saturday night last month over 200 persons gathered on a hillside near Gamber in Carroll County for a rally of the Ku Klux Klan. Approximately 70 of the people there were fully-robed Klansmen and Klanswomen. The Klan is planning another rally in Gamber for the weekend of May 24. For a look at the last rally and what the KKK is all about, please turn to page C-9. — Photo by Neil Sandler

Flood 5-8-75