NAACP Official Tells Of Klan Death Threat Victoria DeLee, NAACP in Columbia, S.C., which in director in racially disturbed turn promised to send an industry of the processor county, S.C., said vestigator from Charleston. Westerday she received a Mrs. DeLee said that when yesterday she received a mailed death threat from her home burned in 1966, it was the first night in two years some member of the

It warned Mrs. DeLee to get fired into the house. out of South Carolina or face "booby traps in your home and car."

was totally destroyed in 1966 threats. was totally destroyed in 1800 lifeats.
by a fire which apparently was deliberately set. She had received death threats before decived destroyed the sometime, but I'm working for a good cause," Mrs. DeLee decived the state of t

Bureau of Investigation office black students last Friday.

The letter said the senders were in Charleston buying "hand grenades, dynamite caps, dynamite and other destructive articles."

It warned Mrs. Del Cartesian was the first night in two years some member of the family had not been awake and on guard. She and her children slept on mattresses on the floor to diminish the chances of being hit by half the chances of Mrs. DeLee, active for many years in promoting rights of both blacks and Indians, says The NAACP leader's home she has received a lot of death clared yesterday.

Mrs. DeLee contacted the Justice Department in Washington yesterday after receiving the threatening letter. She was referred to the Federal Ruran of Investigation office.