

Trial Set 5-19-68

MEMPHIS (AP)—Trial of alleged Ku Klux Klansman Joe Daniel Hawkins of Jackson, Miss., on charges he robbed a Memphis bank of over $26,000 has been set for Oct. 7.

Hawkins, 24, entered an innocent plea yesterday before U.S. Judge Bailey Brown, who reset bond from $15,000 to $50,000.

Hawkins was acquitted in Jackson in August of state charges of illegal possession of explosives, but the FBI said another such charge is pending.

Hawkins also faces a charge of assault on a federal officer.
