

CONFIRMING YOUR PARDON STATEMENTS

Myself and my friend

affirm all men by these presents that _____ is hereby pardoned for _____ committed during any period from 1775 to _____ He/She has, or will, already have suffered enough as just the thought of jail makes him/her melancholy, grumpy, and subject to spells of deep depression. No confession is necessary to validate this pardon as just the thought of contrition is liable to bring on manifestations of free-floating anxieties. No retribution of monies or properties, to persons, states, or federal government is required since no conviction resulted because of absence of any prosecution or trial.

Therefore, I declare that _____ is hereby relieved from any and all legal responsibilities for his/her high crimes, low crimes, intermediary crimes and/or assorted felonies and misdemeanors in witness therefore, I have set forth this pardon covering the period from 1775 to _____

Signed _____ (fill in name of current unimpeachable President of the United States)