Mr. Harold Wiseberg:

Doubt that I spell your name correctly. Please regard it as phonetic.

About a month ago I ordered two copies of your book "Y. Interest" from Tennessee Book Co., Nashville, Tenn., but have received no response, negative nor affirmative. Would you kindly advise them the proper source for procurement?

Our local radio station, W40P, at 1220, is too close to time out in order to get WCOA at Philadelphia, so I have to wait until midnight, when our station signs off, to get Philadelphia on their repeat program. Fortunately, I tuned in on your interview of 2 or 3 weeks ago, but regarded some young men as being most interruptive and disconcerting - & quite offensive.

I was pleased to tune in your interview of a few days ago - and I'm getting quite impatient to receive my 2 copies of your book.

Not only do I believe your estimation to be entirely correct in refuting accepted "close of case" - but your careful calculations appear to bear you out & keep the case "open." What about the "action" which caused the case to the top of the radar frame which, I believe, the shots were at first thought to come? Has this been forgotten - or lost - as were the primary papers on the autopsy? There's much much more to be known - and your title of "Whitewash" Drigardas quite apt.

Our distance from Philadelphia caused quite frequent fading & I lost much of the interview - and the lateness of the hour caused me to be too sleepy, inept in regulating the volume to compensate for fading without, upon its return, awakening the entire House.

I want very much to receive my 2 copies of your book.

If Tennessee Book Co. can't obtain them I'd order direct from you. But, in case they are seeking the source of supply in case of other orders they've received, I suggest that you offer to supply them.

Would you be so kind as to do so?

Thank you.
