

Rt. 8, Frederick, Md. 21701

Dear Art,

Can you imagine how fascinated I am - almost as much as Curry "cracked under the strain" - to know that his "testimony given under oath before the Warren Commission...was about to be published in a forthcoming book written by Stanley J. Marks..."

That the Warren Commission published this testimony didn't scare Curry, but Marks' publication, naturally, terrified him!

This sounds so much as though Marks had written it, & presume it will be no difficulty for you to get in touch with him to tell him, please, that I have two books on this subject, both under the title Coup d'Etat, completed and copyrighted.

As a matter of fact, this is by no means news in California, for I discussed the first book rather extensively on radio and TV there about 18 months ago.

From the one work I have seen bearing the name Stanley J. Marks, I know he is familiar with my earlier writings.

I marvel at your ability to read the minds of Curry and Russell. How little you or Marks or your "legal correspondent" know what is behind each. But it sure makes neccesplugs for the kinds of thing you seem to like to plug.

However, please do get in touch with Marks. This might get a little sticky, for I do have the copyright, on that title and on precisely this subject.

Meanwhile, now that the debt is two years old, how about paying me what you owe me, please.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

I've been paying interest on it. You have ignored all my requests for payment, so how about adding the interest also?
