Desy Mr. de Antenio,

Your wook went out this morning and I hope this, too, ean ontch today's mail, for I an very interested in the Fisher who wrote the mosty review and where it appeared. I have beard nothing of it, and it is the first, saids from some mide news staries. I'd yary much appreciate a copy, for out in the country we are and hear bear of these things, and our finances are such that we can afford and have few subscriptions.

To enswer your questions: I have noon in touch with Penn Jones, thanks. He phoned no and has ordered copies of Whitewash. He mays he's heard it is by far the best yet, which does not make me unhappy.

Actually, since deciding to go sheed with the private printing, for which I prepared initially a year ago, I have sought no effers. Since then, and almost immediately thereafter, I got three herdback offers that I rejected with a counteroffer: the ever and push this edition until you own is out and then recall this one. Mone said no, note sacepted. I did turn down the Pawcett of for for reperback because it hed conditions I could not accept and because it was, I believe, insdemute. I have decided to go for broks on this. I'll take a good offer, nothing less. There are other interests that I count really eveluate and do not try to. I'll let time bring what is coming.

It is, however, my opinion that there are not now too many hardback books for all to get good paperback offers if the books have the quality. So, I den't really care if "potein's is taken first, or Lanc's. I gother from the felfatty and near hysteria of their ade that Holt is worried. I know from other sources that World is. Frankly, I am not, and I am doing mothing to attract a paperback offer. The book mill carm it or I will not have it. This users it has ell the difficulties of the others to evereme and more of its own and unique character. I am confident it will do thim, as I am, without intending enything uncomplimentary about any other book, that it is the most viable one. I may have made the wrong decision, bit I have mode it and I am not at all troubled by it. Every day indicates more and more how right I and Teday I get a phoned reorder of 500 from one of the five distributors handling the book and mailed out from here 38 that were ordered by mail. Of course, I have you to give the printer a cent, and it will take the entire gross of this edition to pay its actual easts alone, aside from the great cost of doing the book itself. But this one di pribator got 500 only three weeks ago!

Thanks for the mention of Netar Martin and Eli Wilentz. They both said they would Mendle the book and I referred each to a distributor, I hope they have it and that you each see your way clear, when you know the book, to encourage them to do some thing with it. For ple assume a private printing is available from only the author. We have lost many sales from this, as have the bookstores. Those who display it do wary wall with it. It sells much more slowly where they do not. Someone else has spoken to Ferlinghetti, the I know only by reputation. We to werried about the price (as eal), but there is nothing I ean do shout that. He should have heard of the book from a Schour phone broadcast I made in Sen Francisco has week. There are 800 copies in California, but the distributor had none in that sity I pressure yes have I was a base Josh and soveral etter talk programs and more are pending. Dear Mr. Weisberg.

Did you ever see my film Point of Order based on the 1954 Army-McCarthy Hearings?

I'm now making a film on the assassination with Mark Lane. Could you send me a copy of your book? As soon as it arrives I'llsend you a check.

Do you know Penn Jones, Jr. of Midlothian, Texas?He publishes the Midlothian Mirror and also has done a book on our subject. If you don't know him you might send him a copy for review. Has weakly paper is subscribed to by people all ever the country.

I assume you've effered your book(Jerry Agel is a friend of mine and he tells me you've turned down Farcett. Is this true?) to various independent bookshops such as Eli Hilents' Mighth Street Bookshop in New York; also the New Yorker Bookshop operated by a friend of mine, Peter Martin. You can use my name with both if you're interested. Also Gity Lights in San Francisco which Launched the Beat movement, cound by poet Lawrence Ferlinghetti.

Good work on your part and Fisher's review is a shameful and beotlicking betrayal of fact, in addition to lacking any serious purpose. I assume that you must be doing emothing for RAMparts.

Good luck and I hope you sell 100,000 ceptes.

Timber Anton
