Dear Jim:

I have received a letter from the N.Y. bar, which I am enclosing, concerning a complaint by you against Mark Lane. I am also enclosing my reply.

Coincidentally Lane came to the prison right after I received the bar association letter therefore I hand delivered my reply to Lane. It appears Lane is writing a Book about the King case titled "Zorro". I told him that I intended concluding the case, committee hearing, writs, shortly.

Re the committee, I think it best that I let them question Foreman, Hanes, and Huie. If they don't get into some of these areas through Foreman or others, and I am not the committee can without deposing Foreman, then they will fold and I am not sure that is in my interest.

I don't know what Weisberg has in mind. Lane said he is about, Weisberg that is, through ^{with} a Book so maybe he intends publishing it; but you would know more about it than Lane. What ever Harold does is his affair but I am going to have to proceed with the case.

I don't want to get in any unnecessary litigation so I'll let you and Lane handle your complaint, however I did write him agreeing to see him as a representative of Donald Freed.

Sincerely: James e. Ray #65477
