Dear Mr. Weisberg:

We have received your card and regret the inconvenience we have caused you.

Unfortunately, the title of the reprint you wished to receive was not recorded. We are enclosing a stamped envelope and would appreciate your sending us the information again, so that we can forward the reprint to you without delay.

Thank you for your cooperation
and understanding.

Sincerely,

Janet C. Muller

Dear Miss Muller,

The reprint I desire is specified in my letter of April 12 to Dr. Lettmer. It is his article in the Journal of the American Medical Association 198:327-333, 1956.

It is cited in Footnote 15 in his International Surgery article, on page 532.

If you can spare a total of three copies, I know two others doing research in the field who would appreciate copies.

Thank you very much. I regret my original request did not reach you.

I do appreciate your thoughtfulness in preparing the addressed envelope for me.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
