Dear Harold,

Because I tore-up the first page of the letter to Tyler by accident, I had to re-type the whole letter. I am enclosing two copies of it.

Policoff called last night just before my parents and brother arrived for dinner. Something about Kevin Welch calling Grodin and telling him Lane might sue you. Robert told Jerry he'd resign if ~~it~~ Lane did it. Jerry said something about a Board of Directors meeting which I didn't catch, but I gathered that Robert would insist on the question of a suit being brought before the CIA's Board of Directors. Jerry also says that Modal and Robert are fighting over their book, but ~~the~~ Jerry says Robert will never come to you for help. Jerry is trying to help him.

Jerry says that Horrocks used to work for Measweet and that the source of his N.Y. Times articles on Watergate was Bennett of Muller Co. He says this came out in the Ellaberg hearings.

Bud told me in passing the other day that he is going to handle a lawsuit - slander, I think, - brought by Sam Jaffe against Moskato. He's trying to locate Moskato.

Best regards,
Jim
