Dear Harold:

I went through some 50 or 60 photographic albums looking for a photo of you, me, and Howard Roffman at Stevens Point but couldn't find it. Dave Wrone wanted it for his book on the Zapruder film. I did, however, come across the enclosed photo of you and me in front of the J. Edgar Hoover building. I think it must be from 1975 or 1976. I can't remember what the occasion was, but suppose it must have been connected with one of your lawsuits.

I'm terribly busy as usual. One new development in one of my cases may interest you. After 13 years of refusing to confirm or deny the existence of records pertaining to a General Reinhard Gehlen and Gehol Org relationship with the U.S. Government, the CIA suddenly filed an affidavit in September saying that it had been forced to declassify the relationship by the Nazi War Crime Victims Disclosure Act of 1998. As a result, we're back to square one in the case.

My best regards to you and Lil.

Jim
