

Dear Jim,            CSC files on you

10/4/77

I've made one hasty and oft-interrupted trip through these pages. If you'd like I'll do it again. I believe that in and of themselves they are not complete, ~~that~~ they make it probable the FBI held back on you, that at least some of the obliterations are not justifiable and that the 1974 interest is related to the Ray case, an impropriety.

The last comment relates to the form you put on the top. Your note ran off the upper edge of the page but that much I did make out. Did you give the VA legitimate cause to review your security file by 2/1/74? If not I'd suspect that VA's spooks were doing this for others.

I find the use of the word "testimony" on form 366 of 2/5/64 interesting. The obliteration under "miscellaneous is questionable. If I've learned the meanings of their marks someone originally intended to withhold more, last sentence first page, top second. You can probably fill in what was removed about you and picketing. If you were arrested or stopped and questioned or removed or asked to leave there would be no basis for withholding this from you.

On p. 2,2, line 6 the first withholding, which seems to have been done by another means than blacking out, appears to be the kind of information not subject to withholding. Lines 9 and 10, if it makes any difference to you, seem to withhold more than the name of a person. The rest, where they've substituted "Third Party," is ridiculous. For all the world as though you know nothing about the one whose cause you championed and about whom you wrote to newspapers.

Penultimate line suggests there could be FBI files on you under SNCC if not also YPSL.

The card that notes reference to the FBI just about assures it did not give you all. In larger type it says "Referred to FBI (Loyalty)" with the "asis" typed in as "Report of Investigation" and the date 2/26/64/

What I think this means is that the FBI did not give you all pending hearing from CSC and that pending hearing from CSC withheld anything indicative of there being CSC files. I'd go back to FBI and DJ or this.

These records make it appear that a decision not to use you had been reached prior to 2/26/64. I therefore seriously doubt that there was proper legal basis for a loyalty referral to the FBI merely because some spook did not like the company you then kept.

On IN308A this was recommended by CSC that same date/ The SF 73 is not here and there seems to be nothing showing "items from B2 through B5." The list attached to the covering letter does not include an ~~(standard)~~ Form 73.

Have you asked the Peace Corps?

Best,

*Harold: This page was last wa
I put it first because of its potential significance*

The newspaper article in the Champaign-Urbana Courier dated June 28, 1961 reflects a James Lesar as chairman of the "Champaign-Urbana Committee on the [redacted] Case." The article stated that Third Party a University of Illinois graduate student, was charged with refusal to answer material questions at a February 1958 hearing of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. The article reflected as follows: "The questions included whether he was a Communist and whether he had taken part in communist colonizing activities as a steel worker in Gary, Indiana from 1949 to 1957." A newspaper article from the News-Gazette dated February 1961 reflects a James Lesar as one of the pickets of the University's Military Ball protesting compulsory military training at the University of Illinois. A photograph of James Lesar as one of the pickets appears with the article.

Other newspaper clippings and articles indicate that he was an active member in the Illinois Chapter of the Young Peoples Socialist League, was a member of the Students Non-violence Coordinating Committee, and had many other affiliations with other campus organizations.

Open Letter to the People

To the People

The Open Letter to the People is a document which has been prepared by the Executive Committee of the People's Party, and is being distributed to you in order that you may be able to express your views on the subject of the Open Letter to the People, and to give your support or dissent to the Open Letter to the People.

The Executive Committee of the People's Party, after a long and careful study of the Open Letter to the People, and after a long and careful study of the Open Letter to the People, has decided to present it to the President and other members of the Executive Committee in Washington, and to the people of the United States, and to the people of the United States, and to the people of the United States.

After the meeting on 11/11/54, the Executive Committee met and elected the following officers: One of the officers was elected to represent the People's Party in the Executive Committee, and the other officers were elected to represent the People's Party in the Executive Committee.

In Washington, the Executive Committee presented the Open Letter to the President and other members of the Executive Committee, and the Open Letter to the President and other members of the Executive Committee, and the Open Letter to the President and other members of the Executive Committee, and the Open Letter to the President and other members of the Executive Committee.

The Open Letter and the Executive Committee were, on the whole, cordially received in Washington and New York and in a few other places, and the impression that they would receive serious consideration was widespread. That many other communities had made similar, spontaneous representations. Nevertheless, we believe there is continuing ground for concern. The efforts of American citizens to support a foreign policy which protects real national interests and which conforms to the rule of law in international affairs, should be continued and intensified.

The purpose of the Open Letter and of the public meeting on 11/11/54 was to awaken concern and to give to the Executive Committee a mandate to continue its efforts to bring about a change in our foreign policy. It is our hope that the numerous letters to the Editor have played an important part in this process. Both those who have agreed with us and those who have disagreed have, we think, contributed to the exercise of the democratic process in relation to a critically important policy matter.

Notes:

In spite of the editorial and individual statements made by President Kennedy in his Cuban Declaration, it should be clear to those far-sighted who still possess of their reason that the position of the United States is tantamount to a declaration of war on Cuba.

Thus we have chosen to play a game of Russian roulette, and if the present course does not prove fatal, another at a later date almost certainly will.

The chances that the present course will end fatally are very slim. To be sure, since in the year 1917 and again in World War I other nations have forced American entry into those wars by demanding of us what we now demand of Russia, the right to help and counsel other international victims.

Our government officials have been enabled by the mounting tide of insecurity and abject fear to compromise the survival of our nation. As must we have later refuse to apologize, and we need apologize.

On the one hand, Archbishop John Stevas was due to be respected for his eloquence and his integrity, now tries to plant us with his denials and sophistry into believing that the world can be divided into good nations and bad nations.

One should not be surprised if the members of the United Nations, who consider themselves his opponents, make us out as the leader of the forces of goodness, for this is the same way he informed them in April of 1941 that the United States was not supporting the movement of Cuba to the United Nations.

Since the inception of the President of the United States, there has been a steady increase in the number of those who have been appointed to the office.

Believe me, it is not the only one employed by the United States, but it is the only one who has been around the world and seen the things that the other

the things that the other... are doing.

...the things that the other... are doing.

...the things that the other... are doing.

...the things that the other... are doing.

...the things that the other... are doing.

...the things that the other... are doing.

Yellin Committee Formed

U.I. Group Profs As Revocation of NSF Grant

A local committee has been organized to defend Edward L. Yellin, University of Illinois graduate student whose National Science Foundation fellowship was revoked last week.

Its purpose is "to consider and bring to the attention of the public the facts of this case."
John Logan, an administrator from University City, Mo., chairman of the group, which called itself the "Champion of Urbana Committee on the Yellin Case."

Yellin, who said he spent his time in school pursuing a graduate thesis in health education, said the revocation would separate him from his wife, possible, and a political group which he had joined.

Yellin, who said he spent his time in school pursuing a graduate thesis in health education, said the revocation would separate him from his wife, possible, and a political group which he had joined.

Note:

From 15 to 20 persons have attended the first two meetings of the committee, a spokesman said.

He told the members that the NSF acted improperly, more engineering does not include the national committee. The NSF said the committee was also organized. Yellin, who said he spent his time in school pursuing a graduate thesis in health education, said the revocation would separate him from his wife, possible, and a political group which he had joined.

If a man tries to find a way to live on principles of justice, he will find a way to find a way to live with a high level of moral and ethical standards.

The NSF said it was not Yellin's fault. It said the committee was also organized. Yellin, who said he spent his time in school pursuing a graduate thesis in health education, said the revocation would separate him from his wife, possible, and a political group which he had joined.

There is no reason why Yellin should not be given the same political freedom as other scientists. He should be given the same political freedom as other scientists.

There is no reason why Yellin should not be given the same political freedom as other scientists. He should be given the same political freedom as other scientists.

The answer to the question is that the NSF has a political purpose. It is not a scientific organization. It is a political organization. It is a political organization.

Yellin was not a member of the Communist Party. He was not a member of the Communist Party. He was not a member of the Communist Party.
