Dear Mr. Weisberg:

I had the opportunity of scanning your book the other day when I was in Cleveland visiting my friend Burt Griffin. Griffin told me that he had received a complimentary copy.

I noticed that you had referred in several places to testimony that I had taken and I noticed that some of the references were not entirely complimentary.

In any event I would like to have a copy of your book. If you can't see your way clear to sending me one gratis, I will be happy to send you my check for the appropriate amount.

Note that my address for the summer is Newfane, Vermont.

Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Wesley J. Liebeler

Dear Mr. Liebler,

I did not give Mr. Griffin a complimentary copy of my book. I did sent one to each of the members of the Commission and a few in the executive branches and Congress, but I just could not afford to include the staff. I sent one to Mr. Rankin, however. We have gone deep into debt on this project.

We have not been making a handling charge, so the entire cost, including postage, is $5.05, and we would appreciate a check.

I noticed that some of the references were not

After reading WHITENASH and I hope your time and interest permits a careful reading - I would like very much to hear from you. I also hope you will then be able to agree with the essential conclusion, that the expected job has not been done and must be, entirely in public and preferably by Congress.

It is my belief that in crimes of this sort, especially with the assassination of an American President, it is impermissible that any essential questions it is within the power of men to answer remain either unasked or unanswered. I do hope that you will agree with this also.

The address I had been given for Mr. McCloy is apparently wrong. Can you give his home address?

Very truly yours,

References to you are on pages 25, 45, 48-9, 115-7, 139, 147-9. Especially after reading the Altgens material would I like to hear from you. The photograph on pp. 262-3 is still not the entire negative but it is the version that shows most that I was able to obtain. I have seen more on both sides.

Sincerely yours,

Herold Weisberg
