PICAYUHE, I.A.

Halt of Crime Probe Alleged

Dr. Grey, Kohn Reply to the MCC asked of the grand jury, Dr. Grey said, "It was Jury Statement er sion president Dr. J. D. Grey Kennedy assassination probe. accused the district attorney's office Monday of "contriving to bodies," said Kohn, "seem to prevent an investigation of or-have been ignored. The day-toganized crime" in the city.

outgoing Orleans Parish Grand probe. Jury, Dr. Grey said their remarks were "extraordinary and Gov. John McKeithen have ofunofficial" and largely devoted fered Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison exists and to criticism of the it." crime commission's demands for action against organized propose that Garrison drop the who Grey said was subjected to dle all the work needing atten-rocket engine fuel. repeated attacks and accusa-tion by his office. tions by members of the district In citing Kohn's work in atattorney's office, said in an in-tempting to present evidence of lates which give the user any jury and the district attorney made very clear that the crime was that they expend as much effort in investigating organized Metropolitan Crime Commis-crime as they have spent in the crime, was the target of the in-"The regular duties of these day responsibilities of the grand Referring to statements made jury and the district attorney recently by two members of the must not be sacrificed for the

"Both the State Police and to a denial that organized crime assistance, but he hasn't taken

> Kohn added that he doesn't Kennedy probe, but that he commission, and not organized vestigation."

Grey also said neither Garrison nor his staff guided the grand jury in an investigation of organized crime.

The two members of the outgoing jury cited by Grey were Mrs. Delores V. Mason-Smith and Walter O. Eckert Sr. They said at a news conference last week that Kohn failed to give them any proof of organized crime in the New Orleans area.

Liquid metals, sodium and MCC director Aaron M. Kohn, bring in additional help to han- potassium, are being tried as

A dentist makes artificial paterview Monday afternoon all organized crime to the grand one of three national accents.