last Thursday before the Na-tional District Attorneys Association at the Monteleone Hotel.

The motion quotes Garrison as saying federal court reached an opinion in a case involving his office and that the opinion had no real basis in law. He called the decision part of a federal conspiracy to obstruct his probe of the Kennedy assassination.

GARRISON REFERRED to a decision by Judge Comiskey, who ruled that Chandler could not be subpensed by the DA to testify before the Orleans Grand Jury about charges of organized crime which appeared in Life. Final judgment had not been signed when Garrison made his speech.

Yesterday, oral arguments were heard on whether Chandler can bring such action, whether the case should be
