LINDBERGH

NAZI

Dear Fellow American:

Charles A. Lindbergh is the great American tragedy. His spectacular trans-Atlantic flight made him the world's best known aviator and his country's best loved hero. That was fourteen years ago. Today he is a hero only to the disciples of Adolph Hitler and to misinformed and misguided American isolationists.

But Lindbergh is more than a fallen idol. The flyer has turned politician, and his politics bear a strong resemblance to Nazism.

That is the tragedy of Lindbergh. It may be the tragedy of his country.

The following pages will explain why Lindbergh has become a hero to all Nazis, both German and American. The answer is simple: in his speeches and writings he has followed the Nazi propaganda line. Whether by coincidence or design, he has become the American voice of the Berlin Propaganda Ministry.

This pamphlet uses Lindbergh's own words to show that he defends Nazi aggression while attacking Britain; that he believes in racism but not in democracy; that he advocates a "negotiated peace" with a man to whom treaties are mere scraps of paper; that he urges cooperation with the Nazis, although Hitler boasts cooperation is impossible.

Now that Lindbergh has adopted Hitler's technique of using anti-Semitism to further his un-American crusade, his adherence to the Nazi propaganda line is complete.

In his campaign to sabotage all-out aid to those nations resisting Hitlerism, Lindbergh has set himself up as an expert in all matters, appointed himself the spokesman for a "majority" of the American people.

Friends of Democracy believes this pamphlet will prove that Lindbergh's sentiments are not shared by most Americans and that many of his "facts" are either unfortunate errors or deliberate misrepresentations.

As the voice of the America First Committee, Lindbergh constitutes a very real threat to our democratic way of life. Under his leadership the Committee has attracted the support of scores of pro-Nazi organizations in all parts of the country. Today, for the first time, the energies of the American Nazi movement are being channeled into one organization, directed by one leader.

If they are able to do so, these organizations will convert the America First Committee into a political instrument and establish Lindbergh as their "leader."

Our charge that Lindbergh constitutes a very real threat to our American institutions is not an empty one. We present the evidence. Let the reader judge for himself.

LINDBERGH MEETS NEW FRIENDS

In 1935 Charles A. Lindbergh became angry with his country and his fellow citizens because, as he is reported to have said, "We do not have discipline." For more than three years he and his family lived in Europe as voluntary exiles. During these years Lindbergh found a new country to admire—Nazi Germany. He found new friends—ranking members of the Nazi hierarchy. In Hitler's Germany he met men who, like himself, believed in "discipline," and who enforced it by means of the concentration camp and the axe.

These include Rudolph Hess who, until his flight to England, was Hitler's deputy leader; Reichsmarshal Göring, who has brought "discipline" to peaceful nations by means of his dive bombers; and Field Marshal Milch, his ruthless assistant. These Nazi leaders entertained Lindbergh lavishly. Society columns from an English-language newspaper published in Berlin (reproduced at right) tell that "Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh were the guests of the Deutscher Auslandsclub"; that "General and Mrs. Göring gave a luncheon for Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh." But they did more than entertain Lindbergh. They fed him propaganda as well as food. They proudly displayed Nazi airpower. Lindbergh listened and looked. He believed what he heard and saw.

Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh, who are spending a week in Germany at the invitation of Aviation Minister General Göring, arrived at the Staaken military airport late Wednesday afternoon in their Gipsy Moth monoplane. They had been met at Cologne on the way from London by Major T. J. Koenig, American Assistant Military Attaché for Air, who piloted them to Berlin in his own plane. "Lindy", who is in Berlin to study German aviation, will visit a number of airplane factories, airports, experimental stations, and the like, as well as the Olympic Village and the Reich Sports Grounds.

Colonel Lindbergh Receives High German Decoration

As a token of the esteem Germany holds for Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, Chancellor Adolf Hitler has bestowed upon him the Service Cross of the Order of the German Eagle with Star—the second highest German decoration, outranked only by the Grand Cross of the same order.

The decoration was presented to him by Field Marshal Hermann Goering, who is also Aviation Minister, personally at a dinner given in Colonel Lindbergh's honor by Hugh R. Wilson, the United States Ambassador, at the latter's home on October 18, 1938.

The Order of the German Eagle was created to honor distinguished foreigners who have deserved well of the Reich.

On October 18, 1938, the Third Reich paid Lindbergh for services rendered. "In the name of the führer," Göring presented him with a Nazi decoration. The German-American Commerce Bulletin reported: "As a token of the esteem Germany holds for Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, Chancellor Adolf Hitler has bestowed upon him the Service Cross of the Order of the German Eagle with Star." The purpose of the decoration, according to the news story, is "to honor distinguished foreigners who have deserved well of the Reich." The decoration was appropriate, for Lindbergh did, indeed, deserve well of the Reich. He had helped Hitler's armies win a bloodless victory in Czechoslovakia. He was partly responsible for the fact that Hitler was given another year to prepare for war, more territory to furnish men and machines. Yes, Lindbergh deserved well of the Reich, for he helped fashion the Munich agreement—an agreement which will go down in history as a blot on the name of England and as a major threat to the existence of democratic civilization. Lindbergh helped to sell out England. He was paid, not with thirty pieces of silver, but with a Nazi medal.

LINDBERGH, AMERICAN MUNICH MAN

Wide World

During the late summer of 1938 war clouds hovered over Europe. The Nazis demanded a part of democratic Czechoslovakia. The Czechs and Slovaks would fight to remain free—if England would help. Most Englishmen wanted to help. But three times Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain flew to Germany to meet Hitler, and on the third time, at Munich, he signed an agreement which dishonored Englishmen. He gave Hitler a green light, and Nazi soldiers overran all of Czechoslovakia. A year later English soldiers were being killed by armaments manufactured in Czechoslovakia.

"I believe it is peace for our time."

Why did Neville Chamberlain act against the wishes of an overwhelming majority of Englishmen? Charles A. Lindbergh knows the answer—or at least a part of it. He had returned to England to repeat Göring's propaganda to members of the Cabinet and of Parliament. He said what Göring knew he would say—that the Nazi air force was invincible; that German war plane production was 20,000 a year; that Germany had a limitless supply of reserve pilots. He implied, if he did not say so, that England would be overwhelmed if she dared oppose the Third Reich. History has proved that Lindbergh was wrong, but Chamberlain was frightened. He raised the white flag and permitted the Nazis to enslave another democracy. Yes, Lindbergh "deserved well of the Reich" a month later when Göring, "in the name of the führer," gave him a decoration studded with swastikas.

"If we desire peace, we have only to stop asking for war."

TO ALL AMERICANS WHO THINK
COLONEL LINDBERGH IS A PATRIOT!

In the words of Captain Eddo Rickabaugh, America's ace pilot in the World War, the words spoken by the famous aviator, "Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh on education, the nation's morals, and the people who paraded in the streets of New York last summer to the tune of 'Stop Hitler'."

The New Deal regime has failed to solve the Nation's economic problems and it certainly is not capable of providing for adequate national defense. Men who have patriotic fervor must be elected to avoid a national catastrophe. We want no war with any foreign nation but we do want our Land adequately protected.

According to the Dies Committee there are over 500 Communists holding down jobs in our Federal Government. And all of them were appointed either by Mr. Roosevelt or some other New Dealer. When the Dies Committee published the names of these communists, President Roosevelt denounced this act of Americanism as "corrupt procedure." How can the New Dealers possibly do anything to defend America when they have done everything in their power to destroy this republic? Do they plan to have Americans go abroad to fight a foreign war? They know the difference between "NATIONAL DEFENSE" and the first step to take in defending our Nation and its flag is to VOTE OUT of public office all those whose patriotism is measured in financial profit. Second, Communist party members and other Reds must be put in concentration camps for at least five years so that they will be able to tell the American people how it is to live under the "Five year plan." Third, Congress must remain in session all summer in order to cope with any emergency that might arise.

Americans must speak softly but carry a big stick. We should tell all the European and Asiatic nations that we don't intend to meddle in their affairs and that we will tolerate none of their meddling in our affairs. In order to do this as a Nation it is up to Americans to tell the wackos in Washington to shut up. The attacks upon certain foreign powers by Ickes and other Cabinet members have been responsible for ill-feeling between America and other powers. Let us remember the advice of Colonel Lindbergh as he spoke on May 1940: "If we desire peace, we need only stop asking for war. The only reason we are in danger of becoming involved in this war is because there are powerful elements of the American people who desire us to take part. They represent a small minority and propaganda."

Following the example of the Berlin and Rome press, pro-Nazi publications in the United States have sung Lindbergh's praises, quoted his speeches, defended him from his critics. The Free American and Deutscher Weckruf und Beobachter, official publication of the German-American Bund (reproduced at upper left), reprints a speech on the front page and labels it "good American common sense." The Christian Front, action group of the followers of Rev. Charles E. Coughlin, published a bulletin (reproduced above) headed: "Colonel Lindbergh is a Patriot." At left is reproduced a news story from Publicity, an anti-Semitic, pro-Nazi newspaper, which calls Lindbergh "America's No. 1 Citizen." Lindbergh's picture is used to decorate the front page of Silvershirt leader Pelley's magazine, Roll Call, which is reproduced on the opposite page. A front page story and an editorial from Father Coughlin's Social Justice are also reproduced on the opposite page. The former advocates that Lindbergh become a candidate for the Presidency, and the latter compares him, not unfavorably, with the Christ. It is not a mere coincidence that the Nazi press endorses Lindbergh. They do so because he advocates policies which, if carried out, will result in an American Hitler.

THE 'SMALL MINORITY' THREATENS U.S. PEACE

WAR MAKING GROUP REPLIES BY CALLING LINDBERGH A 'NAZI'

IN BREAKING HIS public silence for the third time since the outbreak of the war in Europe, Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh did his country a great service.

The popular New York-to-Paris "hone eagle" planner, spoke with firmness and authority in a nation today with hysteria. He spoke with calmness and reason. He spoke with truth in calling off on end to peace "cheerleaders" who were the chorus of delusion which arose from the war-mongering propaganda who called him a Nazi.

The only reason we are in danger because there are powerful elements in America who desire us to take part," said Col. Lindbergh, and bluntly added: "They represent a small minority of the American people, but they control much of the machinery of influence and propaganda. They cheer to the edge."

for the underlying character of this country to rise and meet them, to strike down these elements of un-Americanism and foreign influence, this is our true defense."

The response on the part of the nation and reason is heartening.

LINDBERGH DEFENDS NAZI AGGRESSION

It would not be best to see Germany defeated.

The fall of the British navy would not seriously menace the U. S.

When I saw the wealth of the British Empire, I felt that the rich had become too rich.

But it is interesting to note that the only time this country was ever invaded, it was not by Germany, or Russia, or France.

BUT ATTACKS ENGLAND

And it is not at all inconceivable that before this war is over England herself may turn against us, as she has turned against France and Finland.

This war in Europe is not so much a conflict between right and wrong as it is a conflict between differing concepts of right — a conflict in which the 'defenders' are represented by the static, legal 'right' of man, and the 'aggressors' by the dynamic, forceful 'right' of nature.

Measured by their own standards of today, or by their enemy's standards of yesterday and tomorrow, the Germans are as much in the right as the English and French, for right is not an absolute quality; it is relative to outlook, and outlook changes with conditions — varies from year to year, and from generation to generation.

therefore, when a strong people becomes dissatisfied with its position and cannot attain its ambition through negotiation and agreement, it turns to that primeval 'right' of force — as we did with the American Indians and with Mexico, as England did in Africa, India, and America, as the Italians did in Ethiopia, as Germany is doing today.

The English and French claim they are right in fighting to maintain their possessions and their ethics, and the status quo of their last victory. The Germans, on the other hand, claim the right of an able and virile nation to expand — to conquer territory and influence by force of arms as other nations have done at one time or another throughout history.

What are the beliefs which make Lindbergh acceptable to all varieties of Nazis? What are the policies? Here is the answer—in Lindbergh's own words. Reproduced on this page and the next are quotations from his magazine articles and speeches. He defends Nazi aggression as "the right of an able and virile nation to expand." He insists that "the Germans are as much in the right as the English and French." And while defending Nazi aggression, he attempts to arouse hatred of England by pointing out that an English army invaded the United States more than a century ago. Deliberately distorting the true facts, he charges that England "has turned against France and Finland." When he says, "racial strength is vital — politics, a luxury," he is simply echoing Hitler's Mein Kampf. And when he says that "no system of representation can succeed in which the voice of weakness is equal to the voice of strength," he is attacking the very basis of political democracy. Yes, Lindbergh is acceptable to Nazis because his words might have been written by Adolf Hitler.

BUT NOT IN DEMOCRACY

It is time to turn from our quarrels and to build our White ramparts again. This alliance with foreign races means nothing but death to us. It is our turn to guard our heritage from Mongol and Persian and Moor, before we become engulfed in a limitless foreign sea. Our civilization depends on a united strength among ourselves; on a strength too great for foreign armies to challenge; on a Western Wall of race and arms which can hold back either a Genghis Khan or the infiltration of inferior blood; on an English fleet, a German air force, a French army, an American nation, standing together as guardians of our common heritage, sharing strength, dividing in-

Iranian Institute Head Denies Plea to Bar Those of East

The recent assertion by Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh that America must build bulwarks against the "Mongol" and "Persian" invasions of the Monroe Doctrine, and that race's culture is the only defense against the "Mongol" and "Persian" invasions, was charged as racial hatred by the Iranian Institute for the Study of the East at the Iranian Institute for the Study of the East, New York City.

The Iranian Institute was founded by Professor Arthur Upham Pope, one of the world's leading authorities on Persian art and culture. Professor Pope declared that Western civilization had derived its values from Persian art and culture, and that the Iranian Institute had been founded to preserve and promote the Iranian culture.

Other speakers stressed the "positive" value of Persian art and culture, and the importance of the Iranian Institute in promoting the Iranian culture.

The Iranian Institute, which is responsible for exhibitions of Persian art in London and in New York, and which conducts courses in Persian art and culture, was founded by Professor Pope in 1926. It is located at 175 West Avenue, New York City.

Professor Pope, who is an intensive student of Persian art and culture, has been a leading figure in the Iranian Institute since its founding in 1926. He has been instrumental in the development of the Iranian Institute's programs and has been instrumental in the development of the Iranian Institute's programs.

The Iranian Institute's programs include the study of Persian art and culture, the study of Persian literature, and the study of Persian history. The Iranian Institute's programs are designed to provide a comprehensive understanding of the Iranian culture and its influence on the world.

HITLER'S RECORD

Here is the record of the man with whom Lindbergh would negotiate. It is a record of broken treaties stained with the blood of his victims. Lindbergh must know it is Hitler's method to lull each chosen victim to sleep by promising peace. Yet Lindbergh pretends to accept the word of this aggressor who now says: "Germany has no territorial possessions in the American continent and has given no occasion whatever for the assumption that she intends to acquire such possessions."

ganda, as indicated in the quotations reprinted above. By fanning the fires of anti-Semitism Lindbergh is following the example of Adolf Hitler who converted a base human prejudice into a political weapon. Hitler used anti-Semitism to establish Nazism in Germany. In this country Lindbergh is using anti-Semitism to establish—what? He calls it "non-intervention." Lindbergh's use of the most infamous of all Nazi propaganda tricks was too much for an overwhelming majority of his fellow citizens. Friend and foe alike repudiated him.

See What Prominent Americans Say:

"The most un-American talk made in my time by any person of national reputation."—WENDELL L. WILLKIE.

"I greatly regret that Mr. Lindbergh has seen fit to inject anti-Semitism into his campaign against our foreign policy. It strikes at the very basis of our national unity and, if spread, would certainly be followed by most un-American elements in our population."—ALFRED E. SMITH.

"Charles A. Lindbergh, in a national broadcast, injected religious and racial prejudice into a discussion of our foreign policy. That, I declare, is an inexcusable abuse of the right of freedom of speech which 130,000,000 Americans, regardless of their views, will wholly reject."

—THOMAS E. DEWEY.

"Charles A. Lindbergh's intemperate and intolerant address in Des Moines, in which racial and religious prejudices were incited—specifically against the Jewish faith—should arouse universal protest and denunciation."

—Editorial in the newspapers of WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST.

"Colonel Lindbergh's implication seems to be that they (the Jews) must curb themselves or alternately be curbed wherever the isolationists consider they have influence, including 'our government.' This is ominously close to the proscriptive policies—exclusion of Jews from public employment—applied from the first by the Nazis in Germany."

—W. W. WAYMACK, editor of the Des Moines Register and Tribune.

"History has proven that the American people will not stand for antipathy based on racial and religious hatred, whether it be directed against Jews, Catholics or other religious groups."

—EDWARD M. GALLIGAN, Chairman of the Long Island chapter of the Knights of Columbus.

"No intelligent American can agree with Lindbergh's views on this subject and there is absolutely no excuse for his having raised the issue of anti-Semitism."

A CASE OF PLAGIARISM

Lindbergh has been following the Nazi propaganda line in his speeches and writings for the simple reason that in most matters he agrees with the world's leading Nazi theorists. His statements reproduced on this and the next page are identical in thought, and sometimes identical in phrasing, to those of Adolf Hitler, Sir Oswald Mosley and Lawrence Dennis. Mosley was the leader of the British Union of Fascists and National Socialists until he was imprisoned for attempting to block the British defense effort. Lawrence Dennis is the leading theoretician in the American Nazi movement. Two of his books, The Coming American Fascism and The Dynamics of War and Revolution, are used as textbooks by American Nazis. As these comparisons show clearly, either Lindbergh is a spokesman for Nazism, or he is the victim of the greatest coincidence in the history of the world.

HIS SPEECHES SELL NAZISM ABROAD

Wherever you find an Axis propagandist, there you will find reprints of Lindbergh's speeches. That is not surprising, because Lindbergh, in the guise of Americanism, has been preaching doctrines which give aid and comfort to the Axis aggressors. On June 5, 1941, the New York Times correspondent in Chungking reported that "excerpts from the isolationist speech by Charles A. Lindbergh in Minneapolis on May 10 were dropped, along with incendiaries and high-explosive bombs, in the air raid on Chungking last Sunday." Other dispatches reproduced on this page report that copies of Lindbergh's testimony before the House Foreign Affairs Committee were distributed throughout Nicaragua by the German consulate, that all his public utterances are "widely reproduced in the pro-German press in South America." As long as Lindbergh continues to advocate policies which are helpful to the Axis, he must be looked upon as an Axis propagandist.

Japanese Drop Lindbergh Speech Leaflets Along With Bombs in Attack on Chungking

CHUNGKING, China, June 5—Leaflets reproducing excerpts from the isolationist speech by Charles A. Lindbergh in Minneapolis on May 10 were dropped, along with incendiaries and high-explosive bombs, in the Japanese air raid on Chungking last Sunday. A copy of the leaflets became available only today.

Featuring the Lindbergh talk, the leaflet stressed the "disunity" in the United States and contained a long commentary propounding the argument that China could count on United States support because of anti-war sentiment in the country and because of its participation with the European war. One side of the propaganda had a photograph of Mr. Lindbergh and the picture of the interior of a United States airplane.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

QUITO, Ecuador, April 26—It would be difficult to exaggerate the impression created here and in adjoining South American countries by the simultaneous news of the British withdrawal from Greece, Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh's speech and increasing isolationist activity in the United States.

To appreciate the effect throughout South America it must be remembered that German propagandists have long argued that United States aid was too late to save Britain and that Germany was bound to win. The news from Europe and New York reinforces the German argument.

Colonel Lindbergh, whose utterances with those of his wife have been widely reproduced in the pro-German press in South America, again makes the first pages of all those the Germans and pro-Germans have been making.

Lindbergh was cabled today by Afirmacion Argentina, pro-totalitarian organization in Buenos Aires, that his stand "represents the best North American tradition."

Nazis in Nicaragua Spread Lindbergh's Words

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Jan. 24 (UP).—The German consulate in Managua today was reported to have distributed here and in all towns in Nicaragua mimeographed versions of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh's testimony before the House Foreign Affairs Committee in Washington yesterday.

The Managua daily newspaper, La Prensa, regarded as a pro-Nazi publication, displayed Lindbergh's testimony prominently.

LINDBERGH MISREPRESENTS THE PEOPLE

Every poll of public opinion has shown that from 80 per cent to 95 per cent of Americans are opposed to entering this war.

In his effort to make it appear that he speaks for the people, Lindbergh said that "Every poll of public opinion has shown that from 80 per cent to 95 per cent of Americans are opposed to entering this war." That is not true. At least it is not the whole truth. Although Americans are a peace-loving people, the Gallup Poll reported a few months ago that 68 per cent were in favor of going to war "If it appeared certain that there was no other way to defeat Germany and Italy."

Study Gives Striking Indication of Reversal of Opinion Since October, 1939

By GEORGE GALLUP
Director American Institute of Public Opinion

PRINCETON, N. J., May 8—Widespread controversy has been stirred up throughout the country by the speeches and writings of Charles A. Lindbergh, who is regarded by many as the leader of the isolationist movement. To discover how many Americans agree with Lindbergh's views on foreign policy, the American Institute of Public Opinion has completed a nation-wide public opinion survey which shows that approximately two-thirds of the voters interviewed who are familiar with Lindbergh's views on foreign policy disagree with those views.

The survey found that approximately six voters in every ten of those interviewed were familiar in general with the views which Lindbergh has expressed concerning American foreign policy and the war abroad. Those who showed themselves familiar with his views were asked:

"Do you agree or disagree with what Lindbergh says?"

The results are:

Agree 24%
Disagree 63%
Undecided 13%

The American people do not support Lindbergh. In May, 1941, the Gallup Poll revealed that only 24 per cent of those familiar with his views said they were in agreement when asked this simple question: "Do you agree or disagree with what Lindbergh says?" In short, the American people have repudiated Lindbergh's campaign of defeatism.

WHEN LINDBERGH SPEAKS

During the past two years Lindbergh has given a lot of unsolicited advice. He has set himself up as "the expert" in all matters. In magazine articles and speeches he has asserted dogmatically that Germany can produce more aircraft than England and the United States, that German planes are superior in quality. While declaring that the United States cannot be invaded, he has insisted that England is bound for certain defeat. By making such statements as these he has done more than any other person to weaken the American will to resist Nazism, the will to defend democracy at all costs. But is Lindbergh qualified to play the role of "the expert?" To be sure, he is a good flier. He once flew across the Atlantic. But other men have flown the Atlantic. One of them, Clarence Chamberlain, said: "Either Lindbergh doesn't know what he is talking about or he's been bitten by the Nazi bug." The real experts, the men who are qualified to speak, disagree with Lindbergh.

Can Germany Out-Produce England and the United States?

LINDBERGH—"The claim that the American and British production of aircraft will soon excel German production is not true."

AIRCRAFT YEAR BOOK (published by the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce)—"From all accounts, and they are from fairly reliable sources, the British combat plane production combined with the American output is superior to Germany's in those highly important categories such as fast pursuits, long-range and medium bombers and patrol flying boats."

F. B. RENTSCHLER (chairman of the board of United Aircraft Corporation)—"There is no question in my mind that—given the necessary material—we can not only match the entire production of continental Europe but exceed it. There is almost no limit to what we can produce here."

AMERICAN MACHINIST—"World production of planes, according to best available estimates, is around 8,000 planes a month, divided thus: Germany, 2,500; Russia, 2,000; Britain, 1,800; United States, 1,500; Japan, 300; Italy, none except parts, and small amounts in British Dominions and non-German Europe."

Can the United States Be Invaded?

LINDBERGH—"I do not believe there is any danger of an invasion of this continent, either by sea or by air, as long as we maintain an army, navy and air force of reasonable size and in modern condition, and provided we establish the bases essential for defense."

CLARENCE CHAMBERLAIN (trans-Atlantic flyer)—"Either Lindbergh doesn't know what he is talking about or he's been bitten by the Nazi bug. . . . The way an invasion could be accomplished would be for us to sit back and let the British fleet go under. Then the Japanese fleet could keep our Pacific fleet so busy that the combined German, Italian and remnants of the British and French fleets could overcome our Atlantic fleet. With our Atlantic fleet out of the way, Germany could establish bases in Canada, which is close enough for effective bombing."

MAJOR ALEXANDER DE SEVERSKY—"I contend that those who deny the practical possibility of an eventual air attack on America are lulling the American people into a false sense of safety as dangerous as the 'Maginot Line mentality'."

THE EXPERTS DISAGREE

Can England Win?

LINDBERGH—"It is now obvious that England is losing the war. I believe this is realized even by the British government."

MAJOR ALEXANDER DE SEVERSKY—"All sentiment aside, there seems to me no valid excuse for a defeatist attitude in relation to Britain's prospects in the war. I am convinced not merely that it has a chance of winning but that, given the full material backing of the United States, it has only a minor chance of not winning."

GENERAL GEORGE C. MARSHALL (Chief of Staff, United States Army)—When asked, "Do you believe that Great Britain with the help of the United States could whip Germany?" he replied: "Yes."

Should We Aid Britain?

LINDBERGH—"We must stop sending most of our modern fighting planes abroad."

MAJOR ALEXANDER DE SEVERSKY—"Our over-all task of preparing for the future air war is at this state a matter of audacious designing, experimenting, planning. None of that, of course, is handicapped by the mass production for Britain; on the contrary, that production serves as a proving ground for creative aeronautical effort. In the act of equipping the British we shall be laying the foundation for our own air supremacy."

Are American Planes Good Enough?

LINDBERGH—"When our own government awoke to the fact that we had fallen seriously behind Europe in military aviation, they made a desperate attempt to improve the performance of American fighting planes without taking the time to design and build completely new types. The result has not been very satisfactory. We put liquid-cooled engines in planes that had been designed for air-cooled engines. We began mass production with untried types. . . . Up to date we have not accomplished our objective. . . . The performance of some of our vital types of service aircraft (is) inadequate."

GENERAL GEORGE H. BRETT (head of the U. S. Air Corps)—"So far as production is concerned, Lindbergh knows nothing. He has not kept himself informed on that score. As regards performance his ideas are based entirely on his knowledge of two years ago. Certain of his statements are half-truths. We did put liquid cooled engines in the P-40's that were originally designed for air-cooled radial engines, but that is only part of the story. These planes were redesigned for the new type engine, and supplied an important link in developing newer and better planes. Yes, we ordered 30 of the B-24's before we ever saw them, before Martin even built one. It's one of the best planes we have, it can outrun any pursuit plane now fighting in Europe. Little more than a year ago we were handed the job of building a force of around 5,500 planes into 50,000. Naturally we couldn't do things the old, slow way."

Can We Do Business With Hitler?

LINDBERGH—"I believe this nation is well able to take care of itself economically . . ."

DOUGLAS MILLER (former United States Commercial Attache in Berlin)—"Totalitarian trade methods are political and military in purpose. Mere economic considerations carry no weight. It has been proved impossible to have pure business relations with the Nazis."

LINDBERGH - THE VOICE OF THE AFC

International

Lindbergh is the voice of the America First Committee. The America First Committee has become the voice of all who are working toward a Hitler victory. Although the Committee was formed by sincere but misguided Americans who believe in the policies of isolationism and appeasement, it soon became the rallying ground for all pro-Axis forces in the United States. America's little Hitlers and their followers flocked to the Committee because it was doing their work for them—sabotaging all-out aid to Britain; sowing the seeds of defeatism; creating internal strife and dissension. The America First Committee has become a real threat to American democracy because its membership is honeycombed with Nazis, Fascists, Bundists, Coughlinites and other brands of Hitler sympathizers. Today the American people are threatened by an integrated, unified Nazism which hides behind the deceptive banner of an organization calling itself America First. Lindbergh has become the voice of American Nazism.

IT HAPPENED IN NEW YORK

JOE MCWILLIAMS —
As long as they're half right . . .

Although a few leaders of the America First Committee at one time tried to convince the people that they do not want the support of anti-democratic organizations, the Nazis have paid no attention. They attended Committee rallies in such numbers that they frequently are able to dominate the audiences. The news story reproduced below is a reporter's account of a typical rally—the one at Mecca Temple, New York City. According to the reporter, Joe McWilliams, führer of the American Destiny Party, ordered his Nazi followers to attend. "As long as they're half right," McWilliams said of the America Firsters, "it's all right with me." The Nazis turned out in full force. Following the instructions of their "leader," they shouted "The Jews, the Jews" and "Morgenthau and Cohen." When the rally was finished, "McWilliams held an informal reception at the exit of the temple. . . . A long file of followers, mostly from the galleries, shook his hand and in turn were thanked for attending."

By OLIVER PILAT

The anti-Semitic American Destiny Party of Joe McWilliams got a cold shoulder last night when it made a determined effort to take a place in the united isolationist front.

Acting on specific instructions from their leader, several hundred of McWilliams' followers turned out for a rally at Mecca Temple sponsored by the America First Committee and the Keep America Out of War Congress.

They applauded violently as Sen. Burton K. Wheeler (D-Mont.), Sen. Gerald P. Nye (R-N. D.) and Norman Thomas predicted that this country faced war and dictatorship if the lend-lease bill passed.

Assorted Boos

With great heartiness they booed President Roosevelt, Wendell Willkie, Mayor LaGuardia, Walter Lippmann and the British Navy. Occasionally they shouted "The Jews, the Jews!" and "Morgenthau and Cohen" when speakers discussed public sentiment in favor of all-out aid to Britain, but—

Copies of Social Justice, a Trotskyite newspaper called The Militant and other publications were on sale outside the building.

None of the American Destiny Party group were speakers or on the platform at the meeting, which was clearly run by left-wing, Norman Thomas Socialists, who furnished most of the speakers and most of the crowd of almost 4,000 present.

McWilliams Receives
However, McWilliams held an informal reception at the exit of the temple as the meeting broke up.

A long file of followers, mostly from the galleries, shook his hand and in turn were thanked for attending.

McWilliams said he did not mind remarks of various speakers on racial and religious tolerance.

"As long as they're half right, it's all right with me," he said. "They're right about the lend-lease-give bill."

The precise instructions of McWilliams, according to a spectator who took notes at an American Party affair at Swiss Hall in The Bronx the previous evening, were:

"I want everyone of you who can to go to the important meeting at Mecca Temple. Go in quietly, don't let anyone know you're there."

"Now when these important men get up, they're not going to be able to say what's in their hearts. They know who is responsible for this lend-lease bill. They know who's behind every bit of this aid to Britain stuff, but they can't say so. They've got to keep respectable."

"But when these old puff-balls strut up and down the stage and call them interventionists and other namby-pamby terms, don't let them get that far; just yell: 'the Jews!'"

AN INVITATION TO ANTI-SEMITES

Not all leaders of the America First Committee have repudiated the Nazis. As shown in the "Letters" column of Social Justice, reproduced at the right, two officers of the Committee have expressed a desire to cooperate with Father Coughlin's pro-Nazi followers. Gen. Robert E. Wood, Acting National Chairman of the Committee, made this appeal to a Coughlinite: "I have not rejected the Christian Social Justice movement. I welcome their support in our common objective—preventing this country from getting into war." And Lulu Wheeler, Treasurer of the Washington chapter of the Committee and wife of Committee spokesman, Senator Burton K. Wheeler, wrote to a Coughlinite that "there never has been any discrimination against Father Coughlin's followers." The Nazis no longer have to crash the party; they have been invited.

Peace

The situation becomes extremely critical for Britain. And once again whispers of coming peace offensives are heard. There seems little doubt that Hitler would make peace with Britain if possible. There is no doubt that there is a growing group in England which feels the same way. Also here in America demands for peace are heard. But what is it that makes peace, so far as America is concerned, so difficult? The answer to this is one of the gravest facts in this whole war situation.

Let us assume that Britain could make peace with Germany on the basis of keeping her navy and most of her empire. The foreign groups in America—Dutch, Poles, Danes and other continental propagandists here—would set up a howl.

If, then, Hitler were to agree to restore the independence of Norway, Denmark, Holland, France, even Poland, while these people in America might be appeased there would still be a powerful group—the most powerful of all—the refugee Germans and their fellow racial and religious brethren, who would protest. Because for them the great objective is not to free Britain, Poland, France, etc., but to go into Germany, to crush Hitler, and overturn the present government there and impose upon Germany a government which will permit their return and which will change the laws affecting oppressed minorities. This group stands solidly against any peace in Europe that does not include the invasion of Germany.

'America First' Committee Still Welcomes 'Coughlinites'

TO THE EDITOR:

When I heard that the America First Committee had denounced Father Coughlin and his followers, I immediately wrote a letter to Mrs. Burton K. Wheeler.

I wish that you would print this letter from Mrs. Wheeler in Social Justice. She writes:

"My dear Mrs. B.—: Your letter of May 7th has just reached me. I am afraid that you are a victim of newspaper propaganda, because there never has been any discrimination against Father Coughlin's followers or against any other religious body as far as America First is concerned."

"The thing that the war-mongers want, of course, is to stir up a dimension among the anti-war people so that they will start fighting war-mongers."

"I hope that we are not going to fall into that trap because nothing could be more disastrous. With kindest regards."

Sincerely yours,

Lulu Wheeler.
I am sure that there are a great many people who have dropped out of the America First Committee because they believed as I did.

Woodside, N. Y. —Mrs. R.A.B.

Gen. Wood's Letter

TO THE EDITOR:

On Saturday the Chicago Tribune had an item in which the statement was made that Gen. Robert E. Wood had rejected the support of the Christian Social Justice movement from the America First Committee.

I wrote to Gen. Wood at once. I am sending the letter which he had sent to me. If you wish to use it in Social Justice you may do so.

Gen. Wood's letter reads:

"Replying to your letter of July 5th, I have not rejected the Christian Social Justice movement. I welcome their support in our common objective—preventing this country from getting into the war."

"This whole report has come about through the magnifying of what was a very small incident which happened at a rally in Highland Park."

Very truly yours,

"R. E. Wood."

Not only have leaders of the America First Committee invited the support of the pro-Nazi Coughlinites but, like all Nazi propagandists, they have begun to exploit the base prejudice of anti-Semitism. In the July 12th issue of the Committee's official publication, America First Bulletin, an editorial writer charged that "a powerful group—the most powerful of all—the refugee Germans and their fellow racial and religious brethren" stand in the way of peace. This is the kind of political anti-Semitism which paved the way for a Nazi triumph in Germany. It is the kind of statement which is to be found today in every pro-Nazi publication in the United States.

ENGLAND HAD ITS BRITAIN FIRST

At right is a picture of Sir Oswald Mosley, "leader" of the British Union of Fascists and National Socialists, acknowledging the heels of his storm troopers. Mosley's slogan—"Britain First!"

European

BRITAIN FIRST.

Mosley's Speech

(Exhibition Hall, Earls Court, July 16th, 1939).

Fellow Britons, to-night the British people are here, (Cheers) and to-night from this great audience will be heard the voice of British people telling Parliament, telling Parties, telling Government something it is time that they should hear. (Cheers.) This is a demonstration of "Britain First" (Cheers) and, therefore, is a demonstration of world peace. (Cheers.) This, the greatest gathering of the English under one roof assembled, tells Government and tells the Parties: "At last we have had enough." (Cheers.) We are here to tell them there is something for them to do here in Britain, and when they fail to do it, as again and again they have betrayed our people, we, the British people in British Union, will do it for them. (Cheers.) Enough we have had of alien quarrels, enough threats of foreign war, enough diversion from what matters to the British people, our own land, our own Empire and our own problems. (Cheers.) We say to the Parties who betray, we say to them here to-night: "When you speak of war we tell you this, if any country in the world attacks Britain or threatens to attack Britain, then every single member of this great audience and of British Union would fight for Britain." (Cheers.) But just as straight this too we tell them. We say to the Parties who clamour for war, we fight for Britain, yes, but a million Britons shall never die in your Jews' quarrel. (Loud Cheers.) And before you drag a million Englishmen to doom, we of British Union, we, the British people in sacred revolution, will sweep you by the declared will of the British people from the seats of power that you disgrace. (Cheers.)

We will deal with them, every argument they advance, every trick they try, deal with them and deal faithfully in this great audience here to-night. But before we come to that, fellow Britons, I have something of which to remind you that you may have forgotten. All of you

For years the slogan of the British Union of Fascists and National Socialists—"Britain First"—was dinned in the ears of Englishmen. It appeared on the masthead of each issue of the Fascist newspaper, Action. It was the subject of Mosley's most important speech. Read the beginning of that speech, reproduced at the left. Mosley said: "This is a demonstration of 'Britain First' and, therefore, is a demonstration of world peace." That is what Lindbergh, spokesman for the America First Committee, says today. Mosley said he wanted peace, but added: "If any country in the world attacks Britain or threatens to attack Britain, then every single member of this great audience and of British Union would fight for Britain." Lindbergh says he wants peace, and adds, "If it came to an attack on this country, I would be for war all the way." War did come to Britain. The Nazis attacked. But Mosley did not come to Britain's aid. He and his organization, whose slogan was "Britain First," attempted to sabotage defense efforts. In self-defense England was forced to imprison Mosley and many of his followers. Lindbergh has not been put to the test. But the American people will be wise to remember the example of England and "Britain First."

Dear Mr. Lindbergh:

On the basis of the evidence presented in this pamphlet we are forced to believe that you accept Hitler's "New Order" as the future pattern of the world. Moreover, the evidence indicates that you are attempting to extend the "New Order" to the United States.

If it is not true that you are working toward a Hitlerized world, you are the victim of the most gigantic coincidence in the history of the world, for in your speeches and writings you have repeated, almost word for word, the Nazi propaganda line.

So great has been the coincidence, if it is coincidence, that you have fooled a majority of American Nazis. They look upon you as their "leader."

If you are the victim of a coincidence, and if you wish to clear up the matter, once and for all, you must do these things:

1. Return your Nazi decoration to Adolf Hitler.
2. Repudiate Nazism as forthrightly as you have condemned Communism.
3. Condemn Nazi aggression.
4. Disavow the support of those American Nazis who have declared you to be their "leader."
5. Insist that the America First Committee, under whose auspices you speak, dissociate itself from the pro-Nazi, anti-Semitic elements which make up a large part of its membership.
6. Repudiate as Nazi propaganda all theories of racial or "Aryan" supremacy.
7. Declare anti-Semitism to be a Nazi propaganda trick, a device of power politics.
8. Reaffirm your faith in democracy and declare your willingness to fight for its preservation.

In order to counteract the effects of the extensive distribution of your speeches and writings by Nazi propagandists, and their repeated assertion that you are in agreement with them, you must see to it that your repudiation of Nazism is widely publicized. Otherwise your name will continue to be used to sell an un-American, anti-democratic ideology. No single American must be left in doubt concerning your choice between democracy and Nazism.

If you do not see fit to speak, Mr. Lindbergh, your silence will testify that you are, indeed, a disciple of Hitlerism.
