To Lillian + Harold Weisberg:

On behalf of Gary and myself, I would like to express our appreciation for your gracious hospitality during our visit. The patience of you both made our small adventure a total pleasure.

Gary would have been content to stay much longer with the many files you so openly share, and may I here offer my congratulations for that important collection you have assembled. I was happy to hear that it will find a home in your local college.

All variety of opinion on this subject has surely come your way, and so the time you spent in conversation with our particular version was gratefully received. It was the principal reason for our visit.
Regrettably, Gary and I have been unable to disprove the case against Greer for ourselves, and had hoped that you would do so. As yet, we remain with that conclusion.

With the exception of an encounter with a Pennsylvania State Trooper who objected to my haste, the trip home was uneventful.
Once again, many thanks for all your kindness.

Regards,
Ritchie Linton
