Dear Mr. Wilkinson,

Mrs. Rosenfeld returned the copy of the manuscript Viking had yesterday and I delivered it to Mr. Mohrt of Gallinard (5 Rue Sebastien Bottin, Paris 6). He will read it on the boat. If he likes it, Gallinard will also have to read it. He should hear from them by the first of the month, by his estimate. Your name and address is now on that copy.

As I left Mr. Mohrt's room I bumped into Mr. Andre Deutsch, who said he could be interested and will speak to you.

Sincerely yours,

Harold Weisberg
