Livingstone was here for a while this afternoon, on his way to see if he could stay with a friend in Cumberland. He is in bad emotional shape, was talking suicide, apparently can't get a job and is broke. I shared what little money I had with him so he have enough to buy gas and food.

There wasn't time to copy all he would have let me copy, but I did copy the Baltimore Sun printout, a copy of which is enclosed. He told me that Andy Liddell has all of it and I've written Andy asking for copies, particularly of the Boston Globe printouts and the portions of transcripts of the tapes of his interviews with the Dallas medical people.

I was reluctant to accept his tapes because I am not in a position to make dubs, but just before he left I thought of how I could get dubs made, ~~made the~~ <sup>made the</sup> arrangements, ~~and~~ and I'm having dubs made near here. Andy has dubs of them and a dub of each is on deposit in the Kennedy Library.

He has written a book. All or part is in the hands of people connected with and acting for Jackie, he says, and he wants this kept confidential. If they go over the medical statements, it should shake them up. I've made a few suggestions to him along this line.

I think that the tapes may be of interest to those with whom you are in touch on the Hill. I'll be able to lend them to you if you want them.

If you are not familiar, just about all the Dallas medical people dispute the official version of the wounds and do not believe that some of the autopsy pictures represent what they saw.

I don't know if I'll listen to the tapes while they are being dubbed or not. Because I'll want to be with them when they are dubbed, if the dubbing will be at normal speed it will save time to wait until then.

In all, 11 cassettes.

Best,
