Of Hill Panel

By George Lardner Jr. Washington Post Staff Write

The House Assessinations Committee discovered last summer that its most sensitive files had been rified and then traced fingerprints on them to an officer of the CLA seconding to informed sources.

The incident involved pure the control of the control of the class of the control of th the incident involves at titious entry of a combine safe at the congressions mittee's offices, the safe at the saf said. The safe was reserved to the physical evidence of the Kennedy's assessmention clining the automorphism. the so-called the rays and other articl and Texas Ger. July nally. Apparently nothing taken, but the sou there was no doub flies in the safe had be wed with For inst said the autopsy photos of cold shot that killed Kenr seen taken out of their tu replied, "Good lard, no.

The unauthorized entry was discov d when committee t work early one morning la r, probably in July, sources said.

Blakey [the House committee chief counsel, G. Robert Biskey] was Sold right away!" one source remted. "Only, three or, f ere supposed to have a le. And I under nged me

n officet was a ords it needed for its invi

His fingerprint, were all ever the ass," one source reported "On the hotog inside the safe; and on all rrs of different naciones."

Particularly believes, mother source different was the safe; but some of the safe; but safe;

Particularly believe another digated was the particular was the particular to an automate were found on automate and an automate were found on automate and automate and automate automate and automate a cased.

The episode reportedly produced a great wave of anxiety within the CIA, which has been elsiming for several which has been claiming for several years that it has learned its lessons and that its domestic spring and mis deeds are a religion the past. In any case, the agency launched an intensive internal investigation, including porgraph examinations of Bibliut and perhaps a number of his unperiors.

In a brief seliphone littlewise with things," he said by that, he refu "I signed an eath of se the CLAL" he said. "I canno any first

had failed them in important respec

ed he dig it, and he "one source said "They flunked th also asked also saked him whether anyone or dered him to do it. He said no one and he flux ed that he worked for the CA office if security insisted that he had come fought the jests with his credibility inhemished.

Two already defended myself to my employers, he said when asked about

On the photos-inside the safe all sorts of different package let them [the CIA] conduct the b tigation ... But I think he'd have to admit we wanted better cooperation

Asked one question after snother about the incident, including the idenabout the incident, including the identification of the CIA officer's finger-prints, Blakey kept sayings "I wen't discuss the matter." Asked if he would deny it, he said, "No."

Most members of the House committee apparently were kept in the dark. Even the chairman of the sub-committee that investigated the Kennedy assassination, Rep. Richardson. nedy assassination, Rep. Richardson Prepar (D-N.C.), said he was unaware of it when queried by a reporter. Later, after checking with Chairman Louis Stokes (D-Ohio), Preyer declined to comment, beyond saying:

"Blakey and Lou [Stokes] were handling the CIA stuff. I don't have my nose out of joint about it. Talk to Lou."

Stokes declined to talk "The matter, was terminated," he said, "There's no need for me to comment

If was not clear what other CIA of section might have been given polygraph tests before the inquiry was dropped although sources said that ne of Blahut's superiors. Scott Breck inridge of the CLA inspector generally office, had been expected to be given one. There were also reports that CLA December Director. Frank Carlucti had offered "in a magnetiment was to on CIA assassination plots against ban Premier Fidel Castro.

Breckinridge retired recently. CIA spokesman Hetu said his re ment had nothing to do with the maging of the House committee's As for Carlucci, Hutu told a porter, "He doesn't remember ha porter, "He doesn't remember said."

